FAQs

Will these courses look different on my transcript than regular Auburn University courses?

No. You will be taking the same courses we offer to undergraduate students at Auburn University.

How much does Auburn First cost?

Auburn First courses cost a flat fee of $550 per course for students attending a school in the Fulton County School System. Once accepted to Auburn First, students must submit a $250 enrollment deposit to be applied toward tuition.

What resources are available for Auburn First students?

Auburn First students will have access to Auburn University academic resources including tutoring services, Office of University Writing, academic support, academic advising, Adobe Creative Cloud and Office 365. Auburn First students do not have access to Tiger Transit, athletic tickets and events, the student recreation center, student organizations, and on-campus student events.

Can I enroll in courses not listed on the course page?

Students are encouraged to select courses from the Auburn First course list. These courses count towards post-secondary general education requirements and lay the foundation for academic success at the college level. High school seniors who have earned Auburn First credit are eligible to take courses outside of the Auburn First course list.

Are books and materials provided as part of the tuition cost?

No, only course tuition is covered. There may be additional expenses for textbooks and class supplies. The AU Bookstore can assist with questions about textbooks at 334-844-4241.

How do I pay for classes?

All billing is done electronically. An email notification is sent to your Auburn University email address when you have a bill to view. You can access your eBill through AU Access.

How long do students have to drop a course?

Students will have until the 15th class day of each semester to drop from a course with no grade assignment and receive a tuition refund. For more information, please visit the Auburn University academic calendar at aub.ie/academiccalendar.

CONTINUOUS ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

To prevent dual enrolled students from accumulating D or F grades on their college transcripts, the following requirements for continuous eligibility are in effect beginning fall 2021.

- If a dual enrolled student earns less than a 2.0 Auburn GPA in a given term, they will be required to sit out one semester (summer counts as a semester) and to participate in Academic Coaching in their next term of enrollment. An updated verification letter from the school counselor will also be required for the student to enroll in future courses.
- If a dual enrolled student earns a D or F in any Auburn course but finishes the term with a 2.0 Auburn GPA or above, they will be required to participate in Academic Coaching in their next term of enrollment. An updated verification letter from the school counselor will also be required for the student to enroll in future courses.

Dual enrolled students must consult their school counselor to ensure that the continuous eligibility policies at their school are also met.
