

HOHOKAM ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MODERNIZATION PUBLIC MEETING #1

MAY 22, 2019

Summary

Hosted by Scottsdale Unified School Division and Hohokam Elementary School, SPS+ Architects provided a live poll (Mentimeter) for the public to interact with and respond to questions about the school's physical condition and value as well as questions about culture.

Presenters:

Dennis Roehler - Director of Facilities, Scottsdale Unified School District
Chuck Rantala – Principal, Hohokam Elementary School
Mark Davenport - Partner, SPS+ Architects
Neil Pieratt - Project Architect, SPS+ Architects
Darlene Cadman – Project Manager, SPS+ Architects

SUSD District Members Present:

Dr. John Kriekard – Superintendent
Dr. Ibi Haghghat – Assistant Superintendent
Mrs. Patti Beckman, SUSD Board President

A total of 44 people signed the attendance sheets provided and are attached to this package.

- Parents or grandparents were identified by 9 attendees
- staff were noted as 11
- 8 contractor representatives and the remaining identified as community members.
- The remaining attendees did not indicate

Alison King from Modern Phoenix, a historian was present and provided information about Ralph Haver, Architect of the original school.

The Mentimeter slides and live poll had 42 interactive participants, using their mobile phones. Participants connected to the poll through their devices and could choose to respond to questions on the slides or skip. A total of 22 interactive questions were presented that included questions about community and culture, site and security and learning environments, including technology. The results are indicated on the attached pdf of the completed questionnaire.

Next steps include additional public meetings which are tentatively scheduled for June 18th at 6:00 – 7:30 pm, a third one in August and a fourth in September, dates to follow.