Pueblo Elementary

Community Meeting #1

October 21, 2021

bws ARCHITECTS

Scottsdale Unified SCHOOL DISTRICT

McCARTHY

AGENDA

INTRODUCTIONS

WORK ACCOMPLISHED

- LET'S HEAR FROM YOU

PROJECT GOALS

THE SITE

- LET'S HEAR FROM YOU

SCHEDULE

- QUESTIONS & WRAP-UP

Dennis Roehler
Director of Building Services

Dan Collinsworth
Project Manager + Bond Construction

Shelley Hummon
Pueblo ES Principal

Visioning Committee
Parents
Community Representation
Pueblo Staff
Regulatory Agencies
SUSD Administration

Frank Slingerland AIA LEED®AP
Principal Designer

Sue Gray AIA LEED®AP
Principal + Project Manager

Christina Noble AIA LEED®AP
Sr. Project Designer

Chris Pinkerton AR LEED®AP
Sr. Project Architect

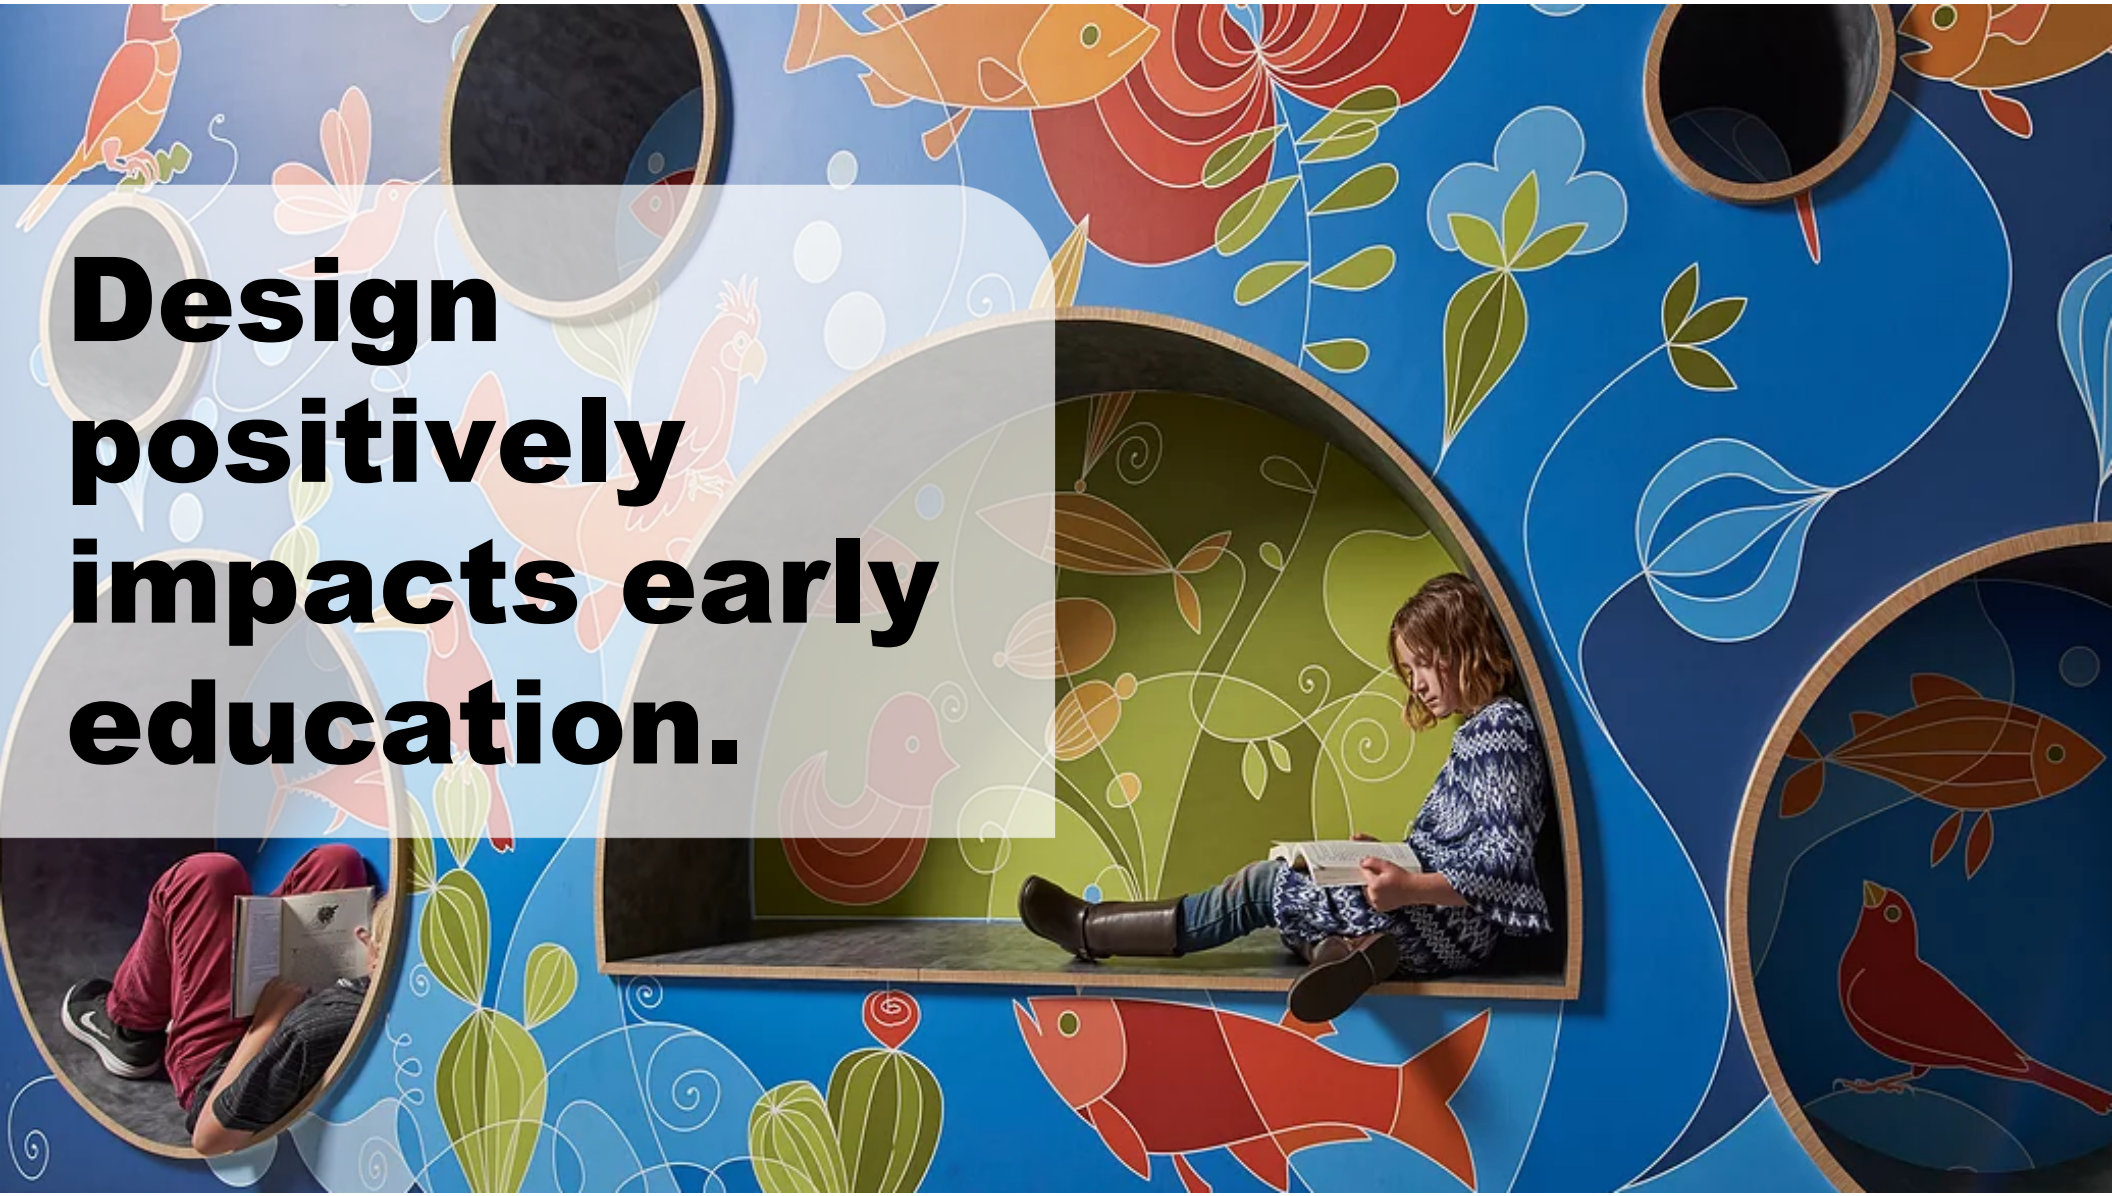

Robert Johnson LEED@GA
Project Coordinator

Tyler Shupe
Project Director

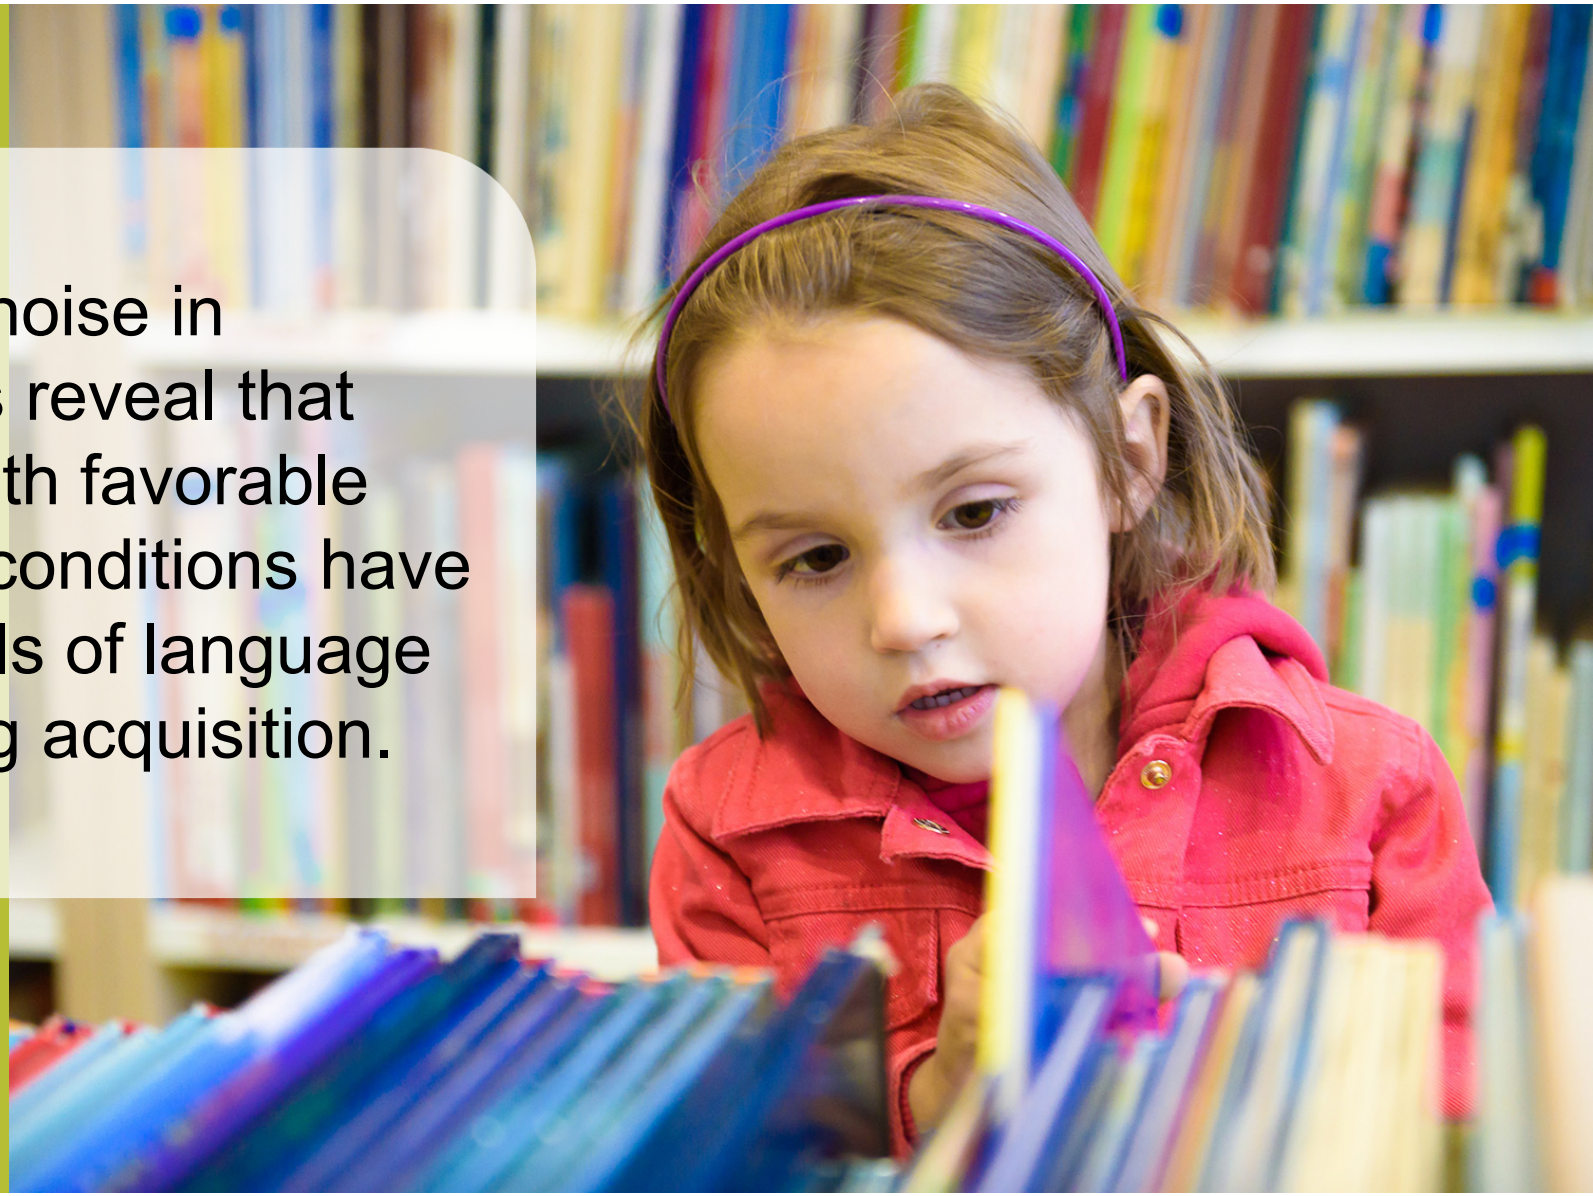

Brett Foster
Preconstruction Manager

Tuyet Jacobson
Project Manager

Jason Grant
Superintendent

Design positively impacts early education.

Studies of noise in classrooms reveal that students with favorable acoustical conditions have higher levels of language and reading acquisition.

Studies have found that teaching outdoors increases students' interest in a subject and intrinsic motivation to learn.

Dr. Ming Kuo of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Natural daylight in classrooms improved student performance on standardized tests by up to 26%.

Visioning Committee Feedback

YOUR TOP 3 FAVORITE THINGS ABOUT PUEBLO

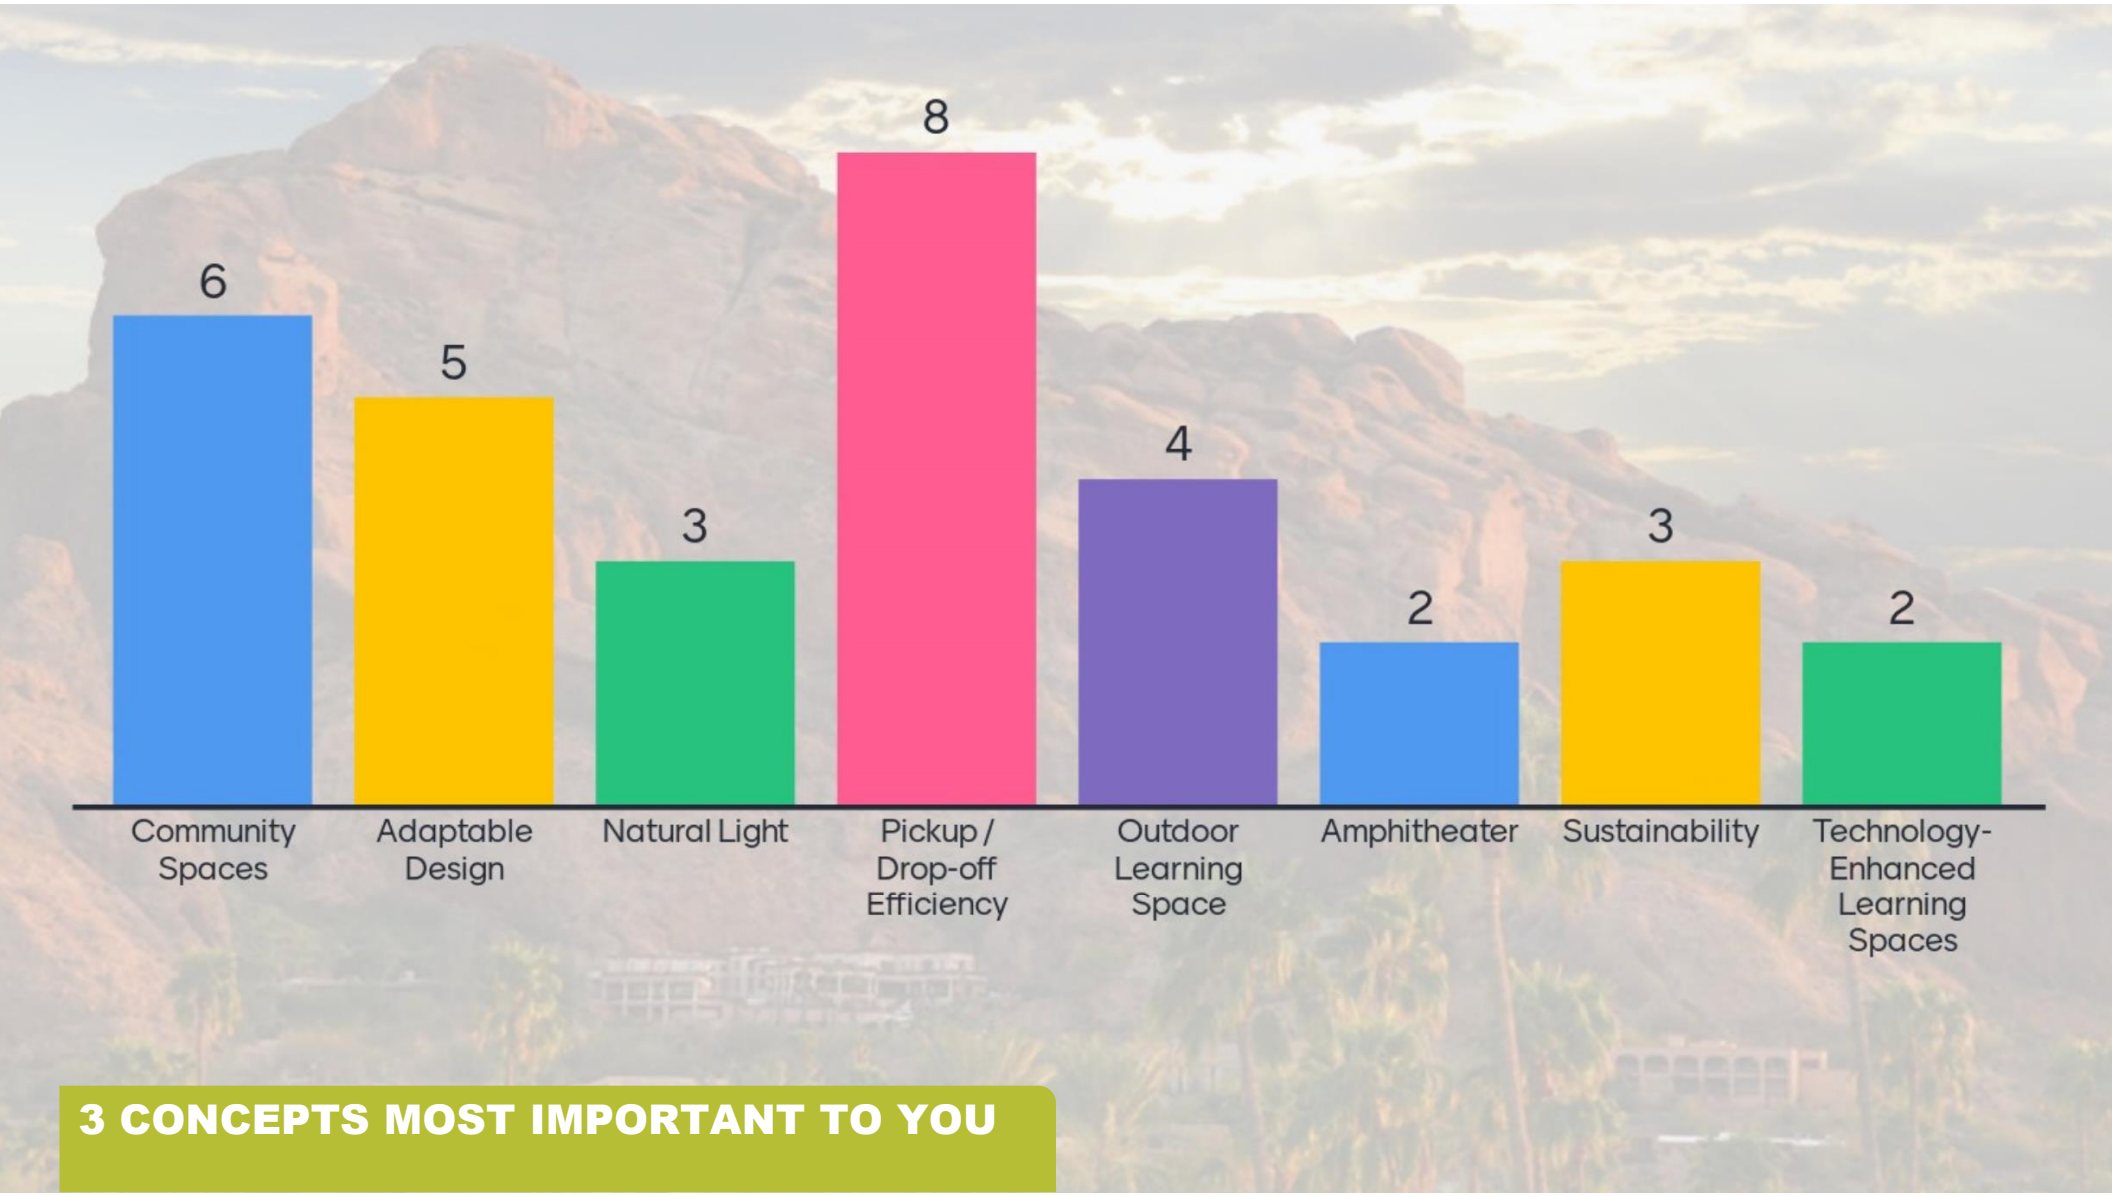

TOP 3 IMPROVEMENTS YOU WOULD LIKE TO SEE

ADDITIONAL ITEMS TO CONSIDER

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITES

3 CONCEPTS MOST IMPORTANT TO YOU