- Engagement and Rigor
- Inclusion and Intervention
- Collaboration and Community

“What really causes a room full of people to change into a community of learners is the work they engage in together. They need to read together, solve problems together, and create things together. They need to huddle together, coach one another, and form think tanks in all four corners.”

- Shelley Harwayne

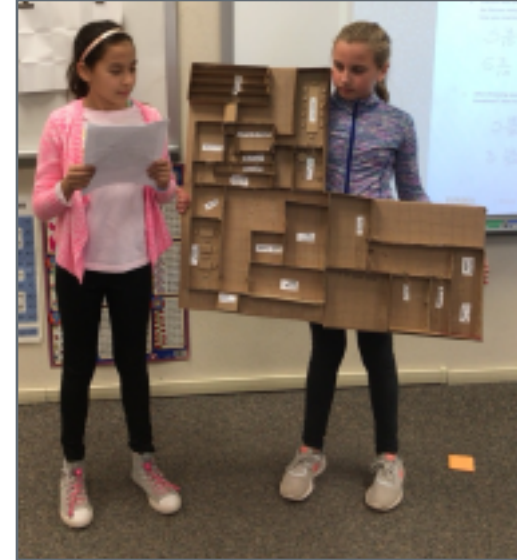

Language Based Instruction

- Discourse Circles
- Shared Writing

Inquiry Based Learning

- Reciprocal Questioning
- STEAM Activities
