1 Ascolta e leggi.

Professore: Ragazzi, di chi è il numero tre?

Alice: È il mio, professore.

Damiano: Ciao, tu sei il nostro nuovo compagno?

Adrian: Sì, mi chiamo Adrian e sono polacco.

Non parlo ancora bene l'italiano ma

capisco abbastanza, sono a Torino da

poco tempo... Chi sono questi ragazzi?

Damiano: La ragazza con i capelli lunghi e

biondi è Alice: è molto sportiva e

finisce sempre il percorso di atletica

per prima. Il professore con la barba

e i baffi si chiama Ghirardi, è molto giovane e simpatico. Il ragazzo con

i capelli ricci e castani si chiama

Rafael, i suoi genitori sono brasiliani;

è allegro ed è anche molto curioso: fa sempre domande su tutto! Parla con la professoressa Maggi, lei è seria ma è anche gentile e disponibile.

Adrian: E chi sono quelle due ragazze alte e

magre che parlano sul prato?

Damiano: La ragazza mora è Sonia, la ragazza

bionda è la sua amica Daniela; sono chiacchierone e anche un po' pigri! Di solito non fanno molto sport... Matilde, invece, la ragazza con i capelli rossi

e gli occhi azzurri, gioca benissimo a pallavolo; è molto studiosa anche se è un po' distratta e disordinata!

Adrian: E tu come ti chiami?

Damiano: Damiano, e sono molto intelligente, generoso, divertente... Scherzo! Dai, adesso giochiamo un po' a calcio!

Dopo abbiamo due ore di laboratorio

di scienze.

A Tour Around Turin

- 1 Read the text and match the descriptions to the photographs.

Turin is the capital of Piedmont. The city is in a lovely location near the Alps, ideal for those who love to ski. It is situated by two rivers, the Po and the Dora Riparia. It is a city with a lot of attractions, both ancient and modern. Let's take a panoramic tour!

- 1 The Borgo is in the Parco del Valentino. Built in 1884, it represents a medieval village, with its houses, churches, squares, and fountains. Within the Borgo is the Rocca, a fortress with dungeons, soldiers' barracks, kitchens, and chambers for the lord of the castle.

- 2 Tourists can also visit the Egyptian Museum, one of the largest in the world outside of Cairo. It features mummies, treasures from ancient tombs, and an entire temple.

- 3 The National Museum of Cinema, found in Mole Antonelliana, is the emblem of the city. The museum has many floors, and it offers a truly exciting experience. Visitors can become explorers, authors, actors, and spectators, thanks to the interactive exhibits.

- 4 The Lingotto is the old FIAT automobile factory. Redesigned by the famous architect Renzo Piano, today it hosts the Fiera di Torino Exhibition Center, as well as a mall, a multiplex movie theater, a convention center, and an auditorium.

- 5 Superga is a hill on Turin's East side, the site of the famous basilica. It is the perfect place for a picnic or spending the day outdoors. To get to this hill, people enjoy taking the cable car, built in 1884.

- 6 Without a doubt, the most delightful symbol of Turin is the Gianduiotto, a delicious piece of chocolate shaped like an upside down boat. The Gianduiotto has been appreciated all of the world for more than 150 years.

CAPITOLO 1

La lettera

orino, 1892

Mancano venti minuti alle nove. A pochi passi dal portone, il segretario scambia qualche parola con il maestro di ginnastica Fassi, poi si affretta ad entrare, sperando di incontrare chi desidera. Sale i primi scalini e, al primo piano, un rumore di passi lo fa trasalire. Sono la maestra Pedani e la maestra Zibelli, che scendono per andare a scuola. Quando per le scale si incontrano, il segretario si ferma, si toglie il cappello e, invece di guardare la Pedani, per la timidezza guarda la sua amica, che risponde con un sorriso amorevole.
