

1st Choice

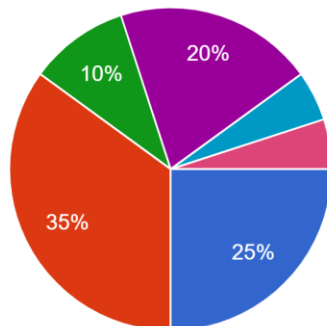

21 responses

- Reading Tutoring before/after school
- Math Tutoring before/after school
- Flex Seating
- Professional Development
- Sub Days for team planning
- Other Idea
- Technology

2nd Choice

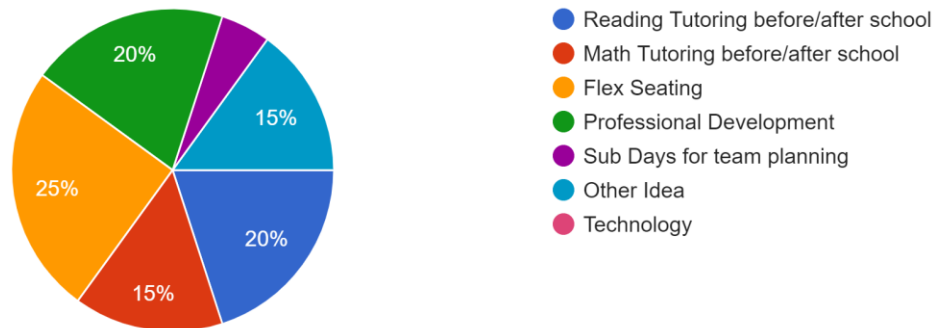

20 responses

- Reading Tutoring before/after school
- Math Tutoring before/after school
- Flex Seating
- Professional Development
- Sub Days for team planning
- Other Idea
- Technology

3rd Choice

20 responses

Please list your ideas if you chose other for your 1st Choice

- Sub days to go observe other professionals in and outside of our district. Let's seek out the rock stars and learn from them.
- We have A LOT of new curriculum pieces this year, time to plan is what we need.
- a better easel to teach with, and some throw carpets for flexible seating's for my room

Please list your ideas if you chose other for your 2nd Choice

- We have A LOT of new curriculum pieces this year, time to plan is what we need.
- I would like 20 reading tubs with lids for flexible independent reading time (studies and research support reading tubs as flexible seating and focus for children under age 8.

Please list your ideas if you chose other for your 3rd Choice

- We have A LOT of new curriculum pieces this year, time to plan is what we need.
- Kinder assessment in the summer BEFORE school!
- flex seating should be the teachers choice for their developmental age of their students. I need throw pillows, carpets and reading tubs.
- Sub days for MOY ELA testing
- I chose sub days for team planning, but for me (the music teacher) I would love a sub day to go observe some other music teachers in the district.

List your ideas for Professional Development

- Google Summit in Spring
- Technology. Whole group instruction. Increase engagement during instruction
- Classroom/Behavior Management
- WFBB Response to Text training
- I'd like to see PD for ELA across grade level and see how the other grades are implementing the units of study.
- PD days for Mandarin team
- I like being able to choose a professional development that is related to my content, music.

If you chose Technology, please list what form of technology.

- What ever the specific teacher needs to improve his/her instruction. Some teachers may do more advanced things because they're more tech. savvy. Then we could learn from them.
- Programs that students can use during instruction.

- Chrome books for students so 1st grade can be 1-1
- iPad

Comments

- We have A LOT of new curriculum pieces this year, time to plan is what we need.
- The 2nd choice pull down menu wasn't working for me.