

The Thomas T. and Bernice E. Irvin Foundation, Inc. Scholarship

Thomas T Irvin was the Commissioner of Agriculture for Georgia for 44 years where he was over the Georgia Department of Agriculture. Mr. Irvin and his wife, Bernice, were active supporters of FFA in Georgia. In their honor, the foundation will be offering a $1000 scholarship to one male and one female recipient. Any student having relation to the Irvin family within the 3rd degree is not eligible as a recipient. Applications are due to the agriculture teachers by March 26, 2024

The following guidelines are required to apply for this scholarship.

- The student must be an FFA member.
- Only seniors that will graduate in 2024 may apply.
- Students must be planning on majoring in an agriculture related field.
- Preference will be given to students who are attending the University of Georgia, Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, or North Georgia Technical College.
- The scholarship will be awarded once proof of enrollment at a post-secondary institution is received.
- The application deadline is March 26, 2024 (refer to your school's deadline).
