

San Marcos Writing Project

Effective Writing Instruction Symposium

Whether you are new to teaching or would like to improve on your current skill level, this 5-day, in-person writing institute will meet your needs. Writing Institute topics will include:

- Creating the conditions for standards-based, effective writing in your classroom
- Providing meaningful feedback for student writing, all while handling the “paper load”
- Using mentor texts to facilitate learning
- Using technology to support student writing
- Topics applicable to grades K-12

Each day (9 a.m. - 3 p.m.) will include: demonstrations with practical resources to use immediately; time to work with experienced classroom teachers; and opportunities to collaborate with grade-level colleagues.

APPLY HERE BY June 6th, 2024

$100 stipend upon completion of institute

Space is limited to 30 participants

1 semester unit of graduate credit is available from CSUSM for a discounted fee

IMPORTANT DATES
June 6, 2024	Application Deadline
June 24 - June 28, 2024	5-Day Institute (9 a.m. - 3 p.m.)
October, January, March (Dates TBD)	Follow-Up 2-Hour Meetings

Contact Information: Dr. Laurie Stowell • lstowell@csusm.edu

