Student Council is a rewarding and fun organization, but requires your input, hard work, and dedication to prosper. Being a member is a responsibility and an honor, requiring participation in service projects, fundraisers, and leadership-building activities. You are expected to attend all meetings held during, before, and after school. Attendance is checked; if three meetings are missed without valid excuses, you will be removed from the council. If you can fulfill the requirements and want to make a difference within the school, sign below.
