Spring 2021 SGC Candidate Roster

Parklane Elementary Candidates

Candidate Type	Name	Declaration
Teacher	Chelsea Little	My name is Chelsea Little, and I am currently the Chair of Parklane Elementary School's Governance Council. During my time as a fourth-grade teacher and member of the SGC, I have recognized that good school governance plays an integral part in schools' achievement. At the start of the 2020-2021 school year, I began building relations with Paul D. West Middle School during the K8 transition. However, once PES was relieved from the K8 model, I focused my attention on improving students' literacy by advocating for fiscal dollars to support teaching and learning. Recognizing the burden that COVID-19 has placed in East Point, I have strengthened relationships with our community stakeholders to support staff and families. I have surveyed parents' needs with students in remote and face-to-face learning environments. Moving forward, I aim to continue to promote accountability among the council and support the students, families, and community of Parklane.
Teacher	Sheneka McCullar Jackson	I have been an Early Childhood Educator for over 20 years teaching infants through PreKindergarten. I had an in-home childcare business for 4 years and I have been employed as a Pre-Kindergarten lead teacher with Fulton County schools for five years. I have a bachelors degree in Early Childhood and I am certified to teach birth through kindergarten and Pre - Kindergarten through 5th grade. I wish to

		serve on the School Governance Council to give the lower grade levels (Pre -K - 1st grade) a voice. I believe that I will be a great asset to the SGC because I have great ideas and I absolutely love what I do and that is to teach and to educate.
Teacher	Carlos Trotty	I have recently served on the SGC for the last two years and have been a teacher in Fulton going on four years.
