If you are worried about yourself or someone else, help is available. You may know of a trusted adult in the high school who is not listed above, and that's OK too! The important thing is that you be a responsible reporter and speak with an adult who can help.

If you are worried about yourself or someone else, help is available. You may know of a trusted adult at home or in the community, but a trusted adult will also talk to you if you call one of the above phone numbers. The important thing is that you be a responsible reporter and speak with an adult who can help.
