STATE CHAMPIONS!

Congratulations to the Varsity Boys' Basketball team on an amazing season and for winning the first state championship in school history! The team won 61–53 this past Thursday night in the TAPPS 3A State Championship game in Waco in front of a lively St. Francis crowd. A big thank-you to everyone who came up to Waco to support the team—students, parents, administrators, fans, and the Cheer Team—and to the many others who were following online or via social media. The energy was outstanding in the gym, and it was a great championship atmosphere. Go Wolves!

Thank You for a Record-Breaking Gala

There truly is “no place like home”! Thank you to the almost 800 St. Francis School community members who were able to join us in the Emerald City on February 24 for the 2024 Gala. It was truly a spectacular and record-breaking evening! Because of the generosity of our community and the tireless work of our chairs, Rory Bellow and Taylor Shaver, and of our fantastic committee of Gala volunteers, our preliminary figures indicate that we raised over $700,000 to support school-security initiatives and over $600,000 to establish the Father Bob Wismer People for Others Endowed Fund for Tuition Assistance. This endowed fund will live on in perpetuity, helping deserving students receive a St. Francis education and contribute to our community for generations to come.

If you weren't able to attend the Gala and would still like contribute to the Father Bob Wismer People for Others Endowed Fund, please click here. If you would like to watch a brief video about Father Wismer and what he means to our St. Francis community, please click here.

From the Assistant Head of School

Over the span of my 42-year career, I've been a teacher and administrator. I've served in many capacities—but what I have not been is a coach. I know from my colleagues that I have missed out on an opportunity that is unique to that role. I have also seen the difference that coaches have made in my children's lives, and in the lives of our St. Francis students. Our coaching staff models the work ethic, character, and teamwork they want to see on our fields and courts. They also honor the "student" in "student-athlete." Our students benefit from the time, talents, and life lessons shared by our coaches.

The stories of great coaches and their influence on people's lives are infinite. At Episcopal School of Baton Rouge, where my children graduated from high school, Clane Duplechin is an icon. He's been at the school for 46 years as the cross-country and track-and-field coach. His local, state, and national Coach of the Year awards pay testament to his success. He's won thirty-one state championships (twenty-two in a row). Coach "Dupe" and his student-athletes adhere to the motto, "Go Knights! Good People! Have Fun! State Champs!"

But when you talk to this coach, he is quick to say that the "State Champs" part of that motto is not his focus. Is it fun to win? Yes, but that's not what he says gets him up in the morning. What has kept him coaching and teaching is the opportunity to help young people. Character matters more to him than winning. He explains that rather than a win, he would rather have 100 percent of his runners set personal records in a meet. Experiencing the benefits of hard work and perseverance are lessons that last beyond high school.

In the book The Legends Club: Dean Smith, Mike Krzyzewski, Jim Valvano, and an Epic College Basketball Rivalry, author and Washington Post sportswriter John Feinstein tells the story of the late Dean Smith, storied head coach of the North Carolina men's basketball team from 1961–1997. As an assistant coach in 1958, Smith brought a black member of his church to a segregated restaurant in Chapel Hill. This was the place he often brought his team for dinner on game days. Smith's pastor, The Reverend Robert Seymour, shared the story with Feinstein. Eager to know more about the courage it took to challenge segregation practices, Feinstein asked Smith to tell him more. Smith was visibly unhappy that this had been shared by his pastor. Feinstein said, "You should be proud of doing something like that." Smith responded, "You should never be proud of doing the right thing. You should just do the right thing." Feinstein writes, "To this day, the line takes my breath away. The line was Dean Smith."

Is there a line that takes your breath away? Is there a lesson that has sustained you into adulthood? Is there a coach whose influence has made you a better person? Let them know. No matter how long it has been, they would love to hear from you.

Warmly,

Amy Whitley, MA

2024 Lenten Challenge: Add Prayer + Give Alms

Each year, St. Francis puts before our parish family a Lenten Challenge designed to engage our souls and our wills. This year, parishioners and friends of St. Francis are challenged to do two things:

- Add daily prayer to your life during Lent. Please click here to see page 3 of our Lent and Holy Week booklet for more details about how to easily enhance your spiritual life through daily prayer.
- Give alms to your needy homeless neighbors by supporting Lord of the Streets Houston (LOTS Houston), an Episcopal Mission in downtown Houston.
  - Lord of the Streets is a church community that relieves suffering and restores dignity by rebuilding lives through ministries and relationships with people facing homelessness.
  - LOTS meets people’s physical needs by providing or hosting life-sustaining services (meals, showers, clothing, medical care, mental health services, a vision clinic, a mailing address, etc.), and offers faith and community to meet people’s spiritual and relational needs, as well.

The Letter of James: Wednesday Evening Lenten Study Continues

Come along and take a good look at The Letter of James. Utterly unique among the works of the New Testament, this letter is loaded with practical and spiritual help for real life. James addresses things such as the difference between genuine faith and counterfeit faith. How do we know our faith is real? Can we know joy even in trials? Can we know patience in suffering? We'll cover the five chapters in The Letter of James in five sessions, with three remaining. Each will take place at 7:00 p.m. on the following Wednesdays: March 6, March 13, and March 20.

Join us for the full Wednesday Evening Program:

- 6:00 p.m.—Holy Eucharist in the St. Clare Chapel
