Learning Behaviour - Respectful/Resilient/Resourceful/Reflective/Relationships

Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Nadia	Relationships	Nadia has worked hard to improve her relationships with her peers this week, both in the playground and in the classroom. It hasn't gone unnoticed, well done Nadia.
	Ava	Resilience	Ava has been showing great resilience recently and has been trying really hard to remember to use her words to ask for help or explain what is wrong. Miss Emery is very impressed and very proud!
3G	Jack & Joslyn	Resourceful, resilient	These children wrote excellent newspaper reports about Bear's missing hat this week. They put in so much effort into their writing and it is just wonderful - great job!
3H	Shivaan	Resilient	Shivaan has been working hard to improve his reading and writing recently. He is keen to develop his vocabulary and is regularly trying to find out the meaning of new words. Keep it up!
	Marjan	Reflective	Marjan has improved her learning behaviours recently. She is now more focused during lessons and is answering more questions during class discussion. Well done!
4D	Danick, Anas, Ranveer and Karthik	Relationships	These children have built some great relationships with many of their peers and are always looking out for them, ensuring they are OK. Keep it up, Mrs Dimitrova
4K	Saketh and Vivaan	Resilience	Saketh and Vivaan participated in all the book week activities with great energy and especially made their mark in the book week quizzes, well done boys!
	Sasha	Resilience	Sasha has demonstrated some impressive writing about the characters of Peter Pan in his books. I am very proud of you Sasha.
4U	Prisha, Ritika and Sheryl	Responsibility	I gave these girls a mission to help out making cards for the two children in our class who are moving on to new schools. They made sure that the cards were made and in good time, so that we could celebrate the students who are leaving this week. Well done team!
	Asma	All five R's	Over the last year Asma has shown me that she is an excellent student. She is always ready for learning and a force of positivity each day in class. We will miss you! Good luck in your new school.

5F	Ihsan	All 5	Today is Ihsan's last day at PHJS. He has been an amazing, vibrant member of the class who has brought lots of interesting insight and produced some fabulous learning. Whilst we will miss him a lot, we wish him all the very best in his next adventure and hope he is excited to meet lots of new friends at his new school
	Nefeli, Scarlet, Nishaa, Michelle,	Resourceful	A big thank you to these children for having the idea to run some World Book Day activities in the atrium during lunchtime. You had a great turnout and it was a big success, well done!
5L	Jackson, Jason and Harry	Relationships / Resourceful	These boys listened well to the instructions and designed and investigated an experiment which explored whether the height of the ball affects the size of the crater. They created a fair test and were very precise in their measurements. Well done!
	Halima	Resourceful	Halima produced an excellent diagram of the solar system in her home learning which 'wowed' our class. Well done for being so resourceful! Keep it up, Halima.
5P	Sofia and Juan	Resilience	Today in Maths, both Sofia and Juan worked really well together and were able to use their tools to answer questions about multiplication and division really well. Well done both of you for fantastic team work.
	Sid	Reflective	I have been extremely impressed with Sid's contributions to whether Space Tourism is a good idea or not. Sid has taken time to look at this question from all perspectives and is weighing up the pros and cons to help him construct his own balanced argument. Thank you for also bringing in your own ideas from home.
6A	Ethan	Relationships, Reflective	Ethan continues to build respectful and kind friendships with his peers, he is considerate of others feelings and understanding of their emotions. He has also made great effort to improve and up-level his work, his contributions to whole-class discussions are invaluable.
	Maleeka	Respect	Maleeka has shown great respect towards her learning this week. She has taken constructive feedback well and followed learning intentions to uplevel her work. Her independent learning showcases great effort and intentional improvement.
6I	Rija	Relationship	Welcome to Rija. She has started her new journey at Park Hill Junior School this week, where she has tried very hard to participate in lessons and work effectively in group work. Welcome to 6I.
	Aratrika	Resilience	Aratrika you were absolutely wonderful during 6I's class assembly on Monday. Such passion and enthusiasm was shown in your speaking skills and explaining the importance of careers. Great Effort

	Genesis, Helena, Samanta,Layl a and Ella	Resourceful	These wonderful children showcased excellent rapping and creativity skills during World Book Day. The class were given a task to rap parts of the story for Gruffalo. It was brilliant to listen to, watch and they definitely worked brilliantly together as a team, helping each other. Superstars!
	Samanta	All 5Rs	A merit from Mr Johnston and Mrs Cooper for being so responsible at the Thursday art club. Samanta is an excellent role model to the younger children in the group and extremely helpful to everyone, whilst also producing her own amazing art! Thank you and well done Samanta!
6M	Avyukt	All 5Rs	Avyukt has shown great responsibility skills and takes ownership of his leadership role. He is our JTA leader and every early morning and end of the month, without any reminders he takes the register and adds the totals up, so that they are ready for Mrs Kataruka. Well done and keep it up.

Additional MERITS:

All children who took part in the CSMA Concert on Wednesday evening. PHJS Choir and Shreyan (5P) who played in the Ukulele ensemble. All these children represented Park Hill so well and were superstars throughout the whole concert. Well done everyone!
