C⁴ would like to thank Pardieck Farms for donating over 60 pumpkins to the C⁴ Culinary Arts & Hospitality program. Students discussed spatial awareness and presentation while sketching designs, then practiced knife skills to carve their designs. Top left, Brown County's Samara Newman (12) plans her design. Bottom left, Seymour's Marcel Ritz (11) uses a boning knife to cut the top off his pumpkin. Right, Hauser's Carly Beeker (11) and Samara show off their carved pumpkins.

The 93rd National FFA Convention and Expo kicked off on October 27th "2020 Style." (a.k.a. virtually) Top Agricultural leaders came together to encourage members to act on the "Living to Serve" portion of the FFA motto. The Columbus chapter accepted the call to action! Pictured right, CEHS seniors Makena Jackson and Josie Burbrink pack Thanksgiving dinners for the local food pantry. FFA students packed 215 Thanksgiving dinners! During the convention, Columbus FFA was recognized with the 2 Star National Chapter Award. Congratulations, Columbus FFA!
