C<sup>4</sup> Cosmetology Salon Now Open to Limited Population

Thursday, October 22nd marked the first day clients were served at the C<sup>4</sup> Cosmetology Salon after closing last spring due to COVID. Pictured left, Cosmetology instructor Brittnay Gonzalez stands at the check-in where clients will sanitize their hands, check their temperature, and sign in by verifying they have no known COVID symptoms or exposures.

For now, the salon will service only BCSC employees and family members of the C<sup>4</sup> Cosmetology students. While looking forward to serving the community when it is safe to do so, the students are excited to be working with clients after practicing for months on mannequins and their fellow Cosmetology students. Bottom left, Hauser's Ariel Whitcomb (12) gives C<sup>4</sup> Director Gene Hack a much-needed haircut. Center, CNHS's Jose Castaneda (11) styles his mannequin. Right, CNHS's Emma Wettschurack (12) prepares to style her mom's hair after a wash and color.

This week Veterinary and Animal Science students teamed up to learn about animal behaviors. Veterinary teacher Amanda Rogers shared a slide regarding physical displays of canine emotions. Students also went to the dog park to observe and document dog behaviors. CEHS's Macey Coers (11) leads dogs over an agility ramp (middle photo). Far right, CEHS's Camille Warren (10) works with Mrs. Rogers' dog on the command to roll over. Students in the Veterinary and Animal Science programs have many opportunities to work with live animals.
