The Kiwanis Duck Splash trailer, designed by C⁴ students, was entered as an Ethnic Expo parade float and won the First Place honor! Kiwanis representatives provided a pizza lunch for the team when they came to present the plaque. Receiving the award (photo, right) are Vincent Signorino, Payton Donica, and Lily Johnson, from Doug Stender of Kiwanis (far left). All three students are seniors at Columbus North, in Mr. Metz's Graphic Imaging Technology class.

Carina Janic (photo, left) was pleased to show off her first AWS SENSE certification this month, in SMAW (stick) welds. Now she is working hard on her next certification, in GMAW (mig). Carina is a Columbus East senior, in the third year Welding class with Mr. Gratz.

The Courtyard Restaurant is taking reservations for holiday-themed meals on December 4, 6, 11, 13, and 18. Find all the delicious details at the C⁴ webpage (listed above), or by calling 812-376-4259. We look forward to serving you soon!

Another sign of the holiday season is the appearance of the C⁴ Holiday Lights for Love Chapel show. Swing through the south parking lot of Columbus North (along 25th Street) anytime dusk to dawn, to enjoy this year's display. All contributions are donated to Love Chapel to support their mission of feeding the area's hungry families.

C⁴ Cosmetology invites you attend their Winter Open House on Tuesday, December 11th, from 2:00 – 5:00 pm. Students from all schools served by C⁴ who will be juniors or seniors in the fall of 2019 and are interested in learning more about this career are especially encouraged to bring their questions. Please RSVP to 812-376-4517, or via e-mail to either gonzalezb@bcsc.k12.in.us or knightc@bcsc.k12.in.us. Snacks and prize drawings are included! A printable flier is available at the C⁴ website.
