

E-nnouncements

Friday, October 21, 2022 Volume 23 Issue 10

C⁴ will connect community resources to provide career education for all students while laying the foundation for life-long learning.

www.bcscschools.org/C4

@ConnectionsC4

Meet the C⁴ Student Ambassadors for 2022-23! This is an amazing group of students from every C⁴ pathway who take pride in their C⁴ classes. As Ambassadors, they work to help continually improve the program by brainstorming new ideas, communicating changes or concerns, and looking for new channels of growth. They guide future C⁴ students on tours throughout all three buildings while describing the wealth of opportunities C⁴ offers. The Ambassadors share news via social media and help with events like GirlUp!, Reality Store, and the C⁴ Career Fair. The C⁴ program would not be the same without their enthusiastic leadership!

"I love representing my class as a C⁴ Ambassador. I am passionate about my pathway and I enjoy passing on my knowledge to younger audiences that may be interested in the class. Hearing younger students say, "I'm definitely taking this class" is the best thing I've experienced as an Ambassador."
- Luis Cantu Garcia (Interactive Media)

"My favorite part about being a C⁴ Ambassador is showing others what C⁴ really is and all it has to offer! I love watching others' minds expand into a larger view on the different career options available!"
- Maggie Weisner (Business)

Shout out to the Ambassador Leadership team in the front row, L – R: Jack Burbrink, Claire Brooks, Ella Engelau, Joyce Redman, Grace Lykins, Luis Roberto Cantu Garcia, Maggie Weisner, and Patrick McMahon. (not available for photo: Mateo Mendez and Natalie Cross)

"I like being a C⁴ Ambassador because it gives me the opportunity to connect with others and share what I am passionate about." – Natalie Cross (Education Professions)

"I enjoy giving tours because I get to see all the neat things happening in other classes besides my own." - Ella Engelau (Animal Science)