Congratulations!

WAY TO GO

A team comprised of students from Columbus North & East High Schools placed 215th out of 1146 in the Gold Tier State Division of the 13th season of CyberPatriot, the Air Force Association's National Youth Cyber Defense Competition.
 Members of the team (L to R) are Corey Shuter, Alex Bloom, Coach - Michael Paprocki, Manasi Indalkar, and Bryan Chavez. Remaining team members Charles Hill & Kameron Nielsen were not available for the photo.

The FFA Parliamentary Procedure team took the win in the Section 4 contest! They move on to compete at the next level February 11th.

Indiana's largest HOSA Chapter traveled to Columbus Regional Hospital to learn about healthcare, its opportunities, and life advice. Keynote speaker Rick Weinheimer started the morning off with a motivational talk on perseverance and leadership. Then students rotated through 3 group sessions, taking a tour of the hospital, observing the Sim lab, and participating in a wellness session including yoga and mindset practices. The day concluded with a panel of former HOSA students in a question/answer session to share their experience with careers, college advice, and much more.

The C<sup>4</sup> Open House has been rescheduled due to weather.
Hope to see you Monday evening!
