

BIOLOGY II, GENETICS

1 semester, 1 credit,

Prerequisites: Biology I & Chemistry I

Approximate Fee: $38.00 per semester

This course focuses on an in-depth study of human genetics. Recent developments in the field of genetic engineering, cloning, birth defects and inherited birth defects are discussed. Physical and mental disorder which occurs through action or inaction of genes and environmental effects on heredity are studied.