Approve Agenda	Ms. Traylor motioned to approve the meeting agenda. Ms. Moran -seconded the motion.
Approve June Meeting Minutes	Traylor approved the agenda which included discussing our SGC action plan, safety and security measures/upgrades, and informed members of our council committee initiatives. All members gave input via a link that was shared by Traylor.
Discussion Items	Traylor provided school updates on the Safety and Security budget for Banneker High School. The budget allotment for this task is $25 per student. The student number will be discussed at next meeting due to FTE being in progress. Traylor then asked the council to provide their updates on what other security measures or features would best be suited for Banneker High School. The council were to bring those ideas back to the next meeting on 10.20. 22 to provide their thoughts to Dr. Stamper. Traylor invited our new members out to Banneker to see the upgrades that were used from the SGC budget from the past year. Traylor shared her screen and SGC members present engaged in a Slido activity to start pairing down this year's big rock initiatives. Some of the initiatives amongst the council which were voiced are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Branding the SGC council to keep the community informed of its existence.</li> <li>b. Create more ways and opportunities for students to be exposed to trades and go on exposure field trips</li> <li>c. Support out clubs and organizations which include athletics for all genders.</li> <li>d. Introduce Mrs. Jordon to the council and allow her to speak on what the center offers as it pertains to mental health</li> <li>e. Involve teachers and ask them for a wish list on an item(s) that best supports their instruction or flow of instruction.</li> </ol>
