

Fifth Grade Learners Co-Authored a Very Special Book

5th Grade Students at Beechview Elementary School
Co-authored and Published a Children's Book

In this student-authored book, readers travel on an extraordinary journey through the eyes of fifth-grade students who fondly recall their own first day of Kindergarten.

As they vividly recreate and reimagine their memories, these young authors provide invaluable guidance and support to the upcoming generation of Kindergarteners, helping them navigate through their initial elementary school experience.

The book was co-authored with children's author,
Andy Gutman!
