Meeting Norms

Start and stop on time. Assume good will. Be an active participant. Be respectful of each other and all opinions.

¹ All new SGC members who are not FCS employees are required to complete Fulton's volunteer registration process. This process requires applicants to register as a chaperone, fill-out an online volunteer application, participate in a fingerprinting/background check and complete the FCS badging process. A step-by-step guide with for this process is attached to this correspondence and additional information can be found on the district's Safety & Security Website. There are no costs to this process for SGC members. You can start the process today by filling-out the online FCS chaperone registration form and volunteer application as well as reserving a date/time/location for your fingerprinting/background check using the SGC Background Checks – 2022 Sign-Up Genius.
