This is where the minutes will be recorded in a list format. The minutes will include who was speaking and details of what they shared...

Reflections Form:

We discussed our 4 strategic pillars – student achievement (use of charter dollars in the reading department), people and culture + community collaboration (parent university development), fiscal responsibility (use of charter dollars)

Parent University survey results:

Based on 26 responses, the most interesting topics for the Parent University were 1) Child wellness, anxiety, stress; 2) Technology and cyber safety; and 3) PTO- how to get involved

Child wellness ideas – Summit Counselor starting back at Sweet Apple one day per week beginning Tuesday, December 22, 2020. Format potential - “fireside chat” with counselor answering pre-submitted questions from parents.

Committee meeting scheduled for January to nail down more details.
