SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Luigi Orione

St. Luigi Orione (1872-1940) was born in northern Italy and joined a Franciscan friary at 13 years old. Due to poor health, he had to leave the friary. He studied under St. John Bosco and later attended the diocesan seminary. While still a seminarian, he established his own oratory and boarding school to offer Christian education to boys, which led to an increase in vocations to the priesthood. Additionally, he founded various congregations for clergy and laypeople, including two religious orders. St. Luigi dedicated his life to the spiritual well-being of others and serving Jesus Christ and the Church. He was known for his care for the sick, disabled, and poor, along with his roles as a preacher, confessor, and organizer of religious events. He had a profound devotion to Our Lady and encouraged this among his seminarians. Today, his apostolate includes around 300 establishments worldwide, such as schools, hospitals, care facilities, and educational centers. St. Luigi Orione's incorrupt body led to his canonization in 2004.

Feast Day: March 12th

BIBLE VERSE OF THE WEEK

Light is sweet! and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun. However many years mortals may live, let them, as they enjoy them all, remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that is to come is vanity.
