Discussion Item:

The committee discussed when and how to vote for SGC elections. Declaration of candidacy open until March 2nd.

The committee also talked about the new platform for SGC Elections. Due to the new platform, some information has been lost.

Discussion Item: Budget and Finance

$15.8 million has been allotted by Fulton County. The plan for the money needs to be delivered March 11th. There will be SGC meeting March 9th. Becky and the Budget Committee will meet March 2nd at 4pm in C-100 after school to go over the plan. The committee also discussed the Fulton County Cost center which is money that comes from the district such as federal, state, etc. Most money goes to strategic plan and supports for students. Local funds, aka Plot money, which is money that is raised in the community. Usually for prom, vending money, etc. Picture Money usually for the seniors. Shaw will present instructional and noninstructional needs in the budget.

Looney sent out email about allotting funds for CSAs - Campus Security Assistant. This role is not a police officer, but they are trained to be an extra set of eyes in the building. This would be a flexible if SGC votes yes. The main difference is that police officers are not accountable to principal but the CSA would be.

Discussion Item: Student Members

Students are asking when they need to request courses for next year. In two weeks students will have the opportunity to submit their requests. There will be more than one opportunity for students to requests.

When do parents know about dual enrollment? It's in the announcements on school's website.

AP Night is all electronic – videos about their program and teachers will post. Potentially Ap AND Dual enrollment night.

Pep rallies are a-go, as of today. Seniors are getting together next week to discuss the teacher/student basketball game, The Harbin Classic. Everyone in the school is looking forward to it.

On the 22nd of each month, there is Senior Recognition. This just means that the seniors get Roswell Garb and neat experiences.

Discussion Item: Public Comment

No public comment was offered.

Discussion Item: Parent/Community Member

No information was offered.

Informational Item: Principal Update

During Black History Month Roswell is including fun facts in the morning announcements. Posters posted up.

Special guest: BSU wanted a prominent AA to speak during black history month. Congresswoman Lucy McBath of the 6th Congressional District. Schedulers trying to make it work. We should know something by the end of this week

Hoops for Heart on Monday.

Baseball starts today

Soccer started.

Basketball in region tournaments

Swimming did preliminaries. No one moved on unfortunately.

Wrestling - two men going to wrestle for state championship in Savannah

Fine Arts – End of the Woods was awesome. Live music. Shuler’s are the Tonys of high school teachers. They came out and they were evaluated.

School fights are down. There was some readjusting after the first week of remote learning in the beginning of the semester.

Discussion Item: Agenda Items for next meeting

The meeting was adjourned at 4:42.

Public Comment Protocol

The Roswell High School Governance Council welcomes public comment at its meetings whenever a Public Comment time is provided for on the meeting agenda. A Public Comment time will be provided for at least half of the Council's meetings in each calendar year. Public comment is limited to up to three minutes per individual, with a maximum of five individuals allowed per meeting, for a maximum Public Comment period of 15 minutes.

School and community stakeholders are welcome to attend SGC meetings to remain abreast of the work of the Council, but they can only participate in the meeting during the scheduled periods for Public Comment. The Public Comment period is designed to gain input from the public and not for immediate responses by the Council to the public comment presented. Individuals wishing to make public comments at said meetings may express their desire to do so in one of the following ways:

- Contact the Chair of the School Governance Council via email before the meeting.
- Sign in on a form to be provided at the meeting.

Priority is given to those who emailed, in the order in which those emails were received. If fewer than five commenters email, Commenters who sign in on said form will be allowed to follow, in the order in which they sign in. No more than five commenters will be allowed per meeting.
