Public comment:

- Lee Hills of the PTSA shared how thankful she was for the RHS Communication Team and especially the Hospitality Team working closely with the PTSA and local merchants.
- The Hospitality Team has assisted in providing food for school events allowing the PTSA to utilize their budget on other school works.

Student update:

- The graduation packets are out and there are some questions on female student dress code for graduation.
- Must the girls where a dress/skirt? Is there an option for pants?
- Dr. Shaw clarified that pants would be okay as long as it is a dressy/more formal outfit for this special occasion.

Principal Update:

- The RHS front sign bid is about to close and the District will be selecting a vendor
- Band, LGP, Soccer and Basketball Teams have all had great events
- March 21 is the community event at Houck's Grill on Mental Health - please share this event and the March 19th Suicide Prevention at Lassiter High School Concert Hall from 7-8 with the RHS community being invited
- The "Rope" hockey team in conjunction with Pope will be playing for their 2nd State Championship in Woodstock tomorrow night
- The Request for Flexibility Waivers submitted by the SGC have been approved by the County
- Strategic Flexible Funding - please submit any ideas you have for school needs to be considered with these funds. More discussions on this for the next meeting.
- Amy Jewett asked for everyone to consider leadership transition on the SGC. Be thinking about the roles you would be willing to take on and if your term is ending please write a recap of what you have learned to share with the new candidate taking your place during the role turnover.

Budget and Finance Committee Update:

- Asking for proposed Flexible Spending ideas to be in by April 9.

- Laura Hunter is sending an email out to the Teachers, etc. and is asking the PTSA Newsletter to share the information with Parents as well.

Communication and Outreach Committee Update:

- SGC Election in full swing, Candidate Declarations posted, voting links sent to Parents/Guardians and Teachers, advertising on RHS web site, front sign, social media and more.
- Should hear some preliminary voting numbers by mid-week.

Agenda Items for Next SGC Meeting:

- We will have committee breakouts and review the Student Achievement Pillars.
- Future meetings will be discussing one pillar per month with People and Culture and Community Collaboration slated for the following months.

Next meeting date: March 27, 2019
