PTO Update (Ann Nath)

- Still running membership drive; will draw for final 3 parking spots on Friday, August 20
- Recruiting volunteers to help out at front desk
- Next meeting – Wednesday, August 18 in MHS Media Center

PBIS Update (Rebecca DeWeese)

- Waiting for materials from Fulton County for “Just Say Hello” initiative. Goal is to encourage students to get to know each other with being back to face to face learning, will include daily challenges/photo challenges, emphasis will be on keeping kids safely in the building
- Tardies will begin to be enforced after the 1st week of school

Student Success Skills Update (Rebecca DeWeese)

- Started this week, Tuesdays and Thursdays for 6 consecutive weeks in the fall semester, then will break until beginning again for entirety of spring semester
- Occurs in study hall for all students

Principal's Report (Brian Jones)

- Current enrollment is 2118; going through list of no-show students from first 2 days of school and reaching out to families; anticipate enrollment being 20-25 over projection, reserve funding will go towards purchasing 1 campus security position and hiring back a part time graduation coach, will be finalized once 10 day count occurs
- First 2 days have gone well, grade level meetings are occurring each day this week
- Mask compliance among students has been good; some teachers received email complaints from parents regarding masks, those emails have been forwarded on to the county level
- Dr. Looney to announce an alternative option to mask wearing later this week

Discussion Items:

Agenda Items for Next Meeting: Principal's Report, PBIS Update, Student Success Skills Update, PTO Update
