Eden Corner

The Wildcat Fund and The Gala Will Work Together

For the past five years, the Wildcat Fund has held a Day of Giving—a targeted, 24-hour event to raise funds for essential needs at OLGC School. This year, Fr. Matt wanted to bring the Gala back after a four-year pause, with an option that would combine a celebration of fellowship with the amazing momentum that the Wildcat Fund Day of Giving has garnered over the years, while also recognizing the amazing response our community just put forth for The Cornerstone Project.

Thus, for this year alone, the Day of Giving will occur during the Raise the Paddle portion of the Live Auction.

The proceeds from this year's Raise the Paddle will be applied to—

- Modernized technology and safety upgrades for the school's multimedia center;
- DeSales Hall renovations to the sound system and stage; and
- New laptops for each teacher at OLGC School.

We are pleased to announce that an anonymous donor will match the first $50,000 raised at the Raise the Paddle. This is an incredible opportunity to double the impact the Auction can have for OLGC!

For all those that have generously supported Day of Giving in the past and wish to lend support again, please focus on the Gala this year. Consider purchasing a ticket or a table, becoming a sponsor, or engaging in the auction. With your support, the incredible work we accomplish through our ministries, school, and fellowship organizations can continue to thrive.

If you can't attend the Gala, you can still support the event and The Wildcat Fund by becoming a Community Sponsor. Visit bit.ly/Gala-community-sponsors.

Thank you for your time and commitment to OLGC!

THE GIFT OF MORTALITY

My cousin, Ron, lives in Colorado. Now in his mid-70's, he's spent most of his career working with elders. He conducts retreats in deserts and other inspiring locations for those who are retired and looking to discover purpose, passion, and the call to service in the elder third of life. He calls his approach "Conscious Elderhood," and is fiercely committed to showing older persons how to enter a new, exciting, and fulfilling time. Kindred spirits, we have amazing and thought-provoking conversations.

Recently he used the term "the gift of mortality" when referring to a subject included in his retreats. I'd not heard that term before, but that doesn't mean it hasn't been around. Mortality is something most of us fear, and we don't like to go there. But, when described as a "gift," it takes on a new meaning. Think about it...when we receive a gift, our inner child delights with joy. Whether it's a surprise, something we've wanted, hoped for, or even practical, gifts make us happy. It could be a luxury we'd never buy for ourselves, but somebody cared enough about us to give us something special and, in turn, we feel grateful.

I've been thinking a lot about that conversation. Exploring our mortality as a "gift" is a new way to look at death. I'm probably late in coming to this idea, but thought of in this fresh context, it takes on a different hue, no longer dark and foreboding, something to fear, but instead full of expectation, joy, and gratitude.

I'll leave it there for you to ponder, if you wish, as we continue through Lent to the cross and, finally, to the empty tomb as we celebrate Easter and the greatest gift of all...eternal life!

Elder Wisdom

An Irishman has an abiding sense of tragedy which sustains him through temporary periods of joy.

Final Opportunities for Reconciliation before Holy Week

This week there will be two opportunities for reconciliation:
Wednesday, March 20 6:30–7:30 pm.
and Saturday, March 23 9–9:30 am.

There will be no scheduled time for confessions during Holy Week.
Please plan accordingly.

The Weeks Ahead

This weekend we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Lent. Our Elect experience their Third Scrutiny as they prepare to be baptized, confirmed and to receive First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil, reminding all of us of our Baptismal mission. We are sent forth from Mass singing "Jesus, remember me," and the next time we gather we'll wave our palms to observe Palm Sunday and our entrance into Holy Week and the Triduum, our experience of loss, fear and redemption. The Triduum—three days, one single liturgy—begins at sundown Holy Thursday and concludes Easter Sunday at sundown. We move seamlessly from the Thursday Last Supper through the Good Friday Passion of the Lord and the great Holy Saturday Vigil, culminating with the joyful Alleluias of Easter Sunday! I hope to see and hear many of you as we move through this act of death and resurrection, salvation and love.
