

ARE
YOU
READY
FOR EXAMS?

Start date week begging April 21st

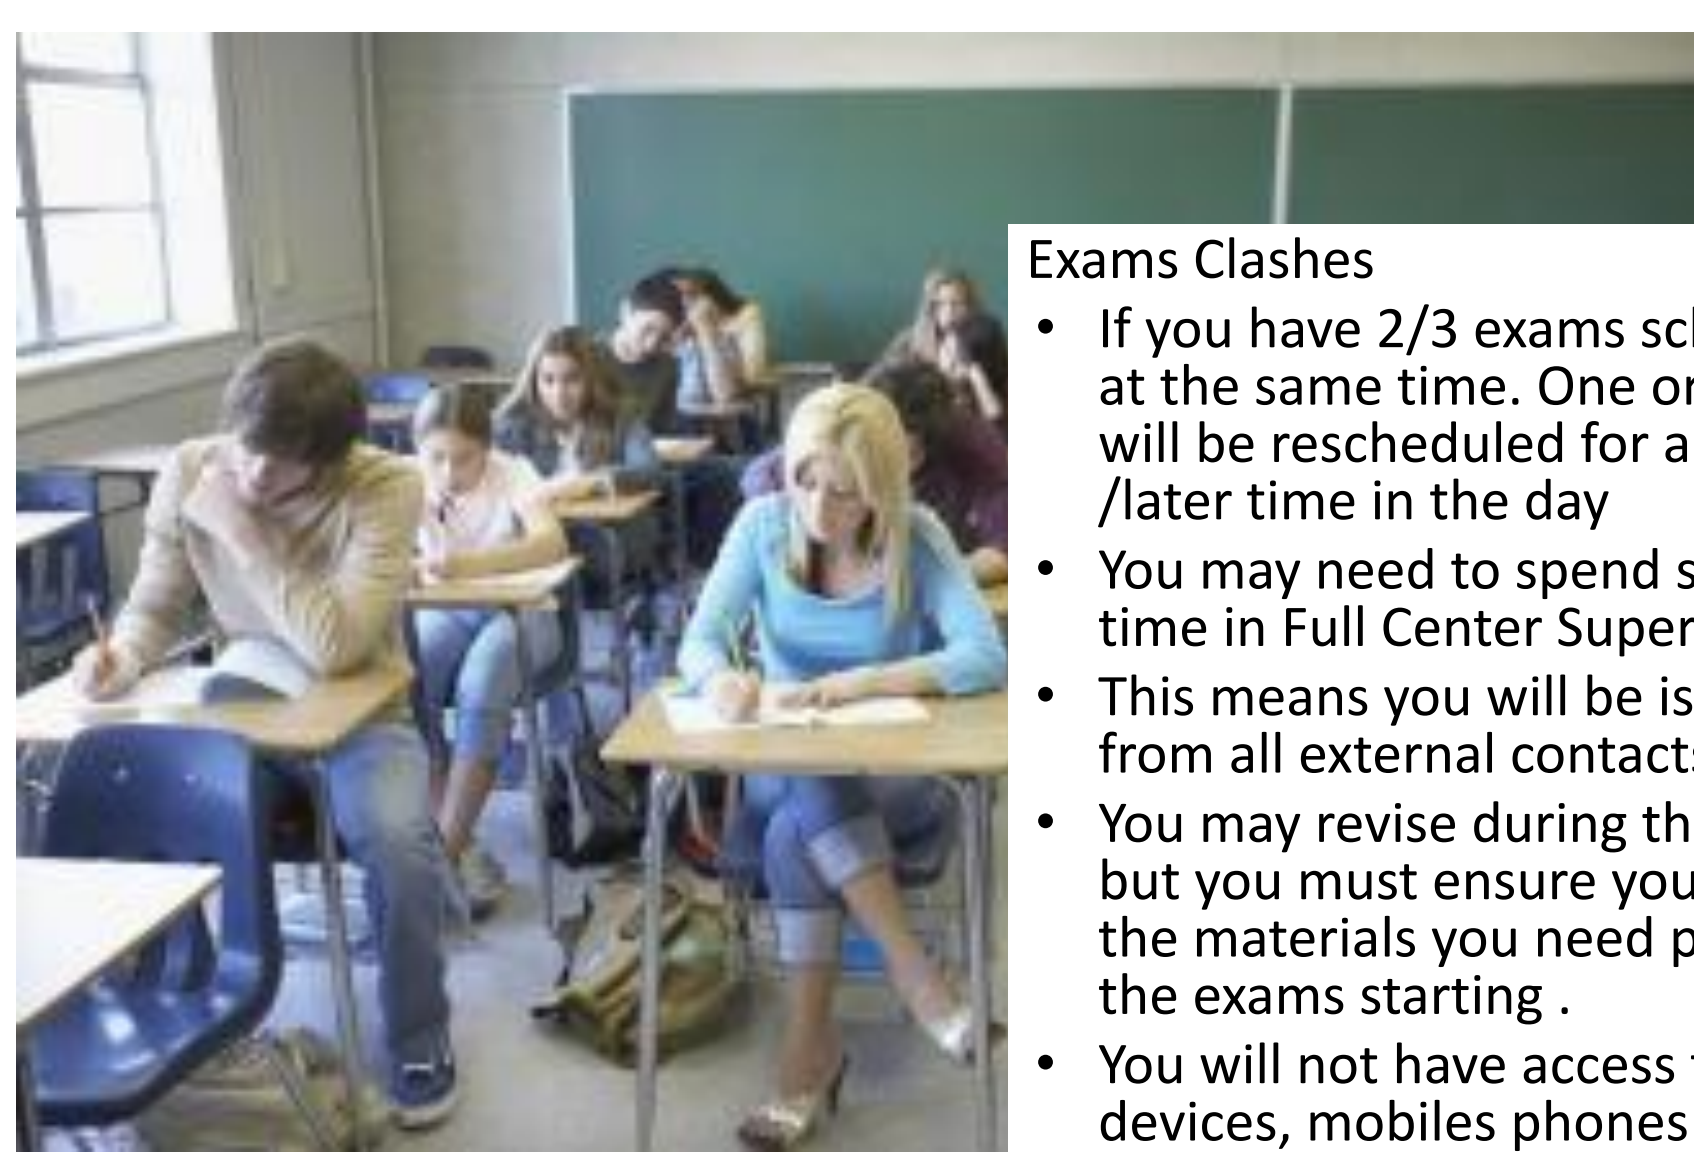

If exams are cancelled the school, we will use the following to work out your grade

- Mock exam results
- Coursework
- Class assignments

So make them count and do your best !

- Look at your statements of entry
- They tell you when your exams are
- If you have a clash you will receive further instructions about how the exam time will change
- Check it is correct
- Each week I will email a list of times and locations for the exams please check , it is your responsibility.
- Arrive 15 mins before the exam is due to start
- GO TO THE LOO !

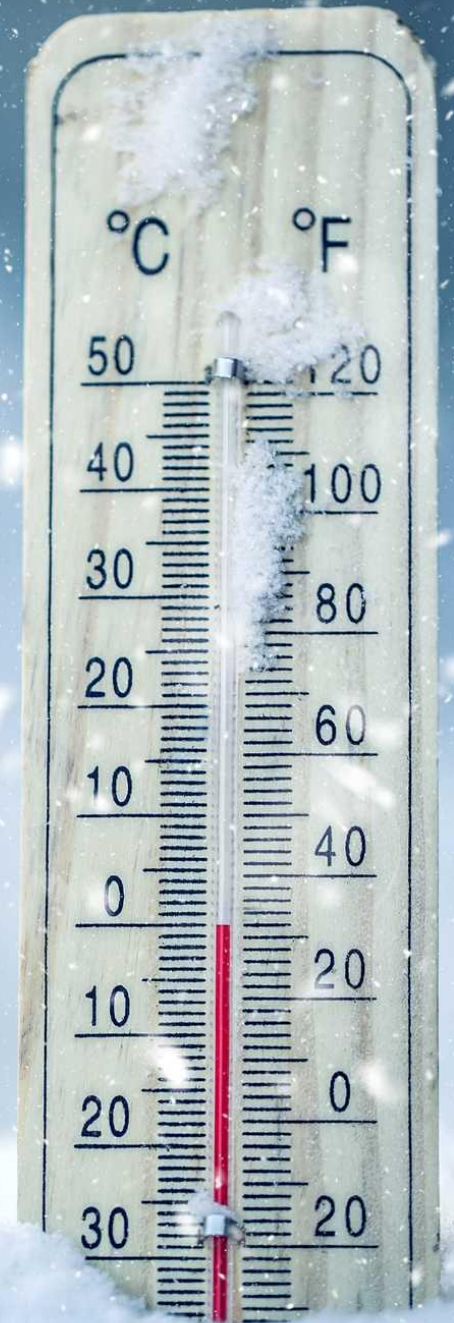

Exams Clashes

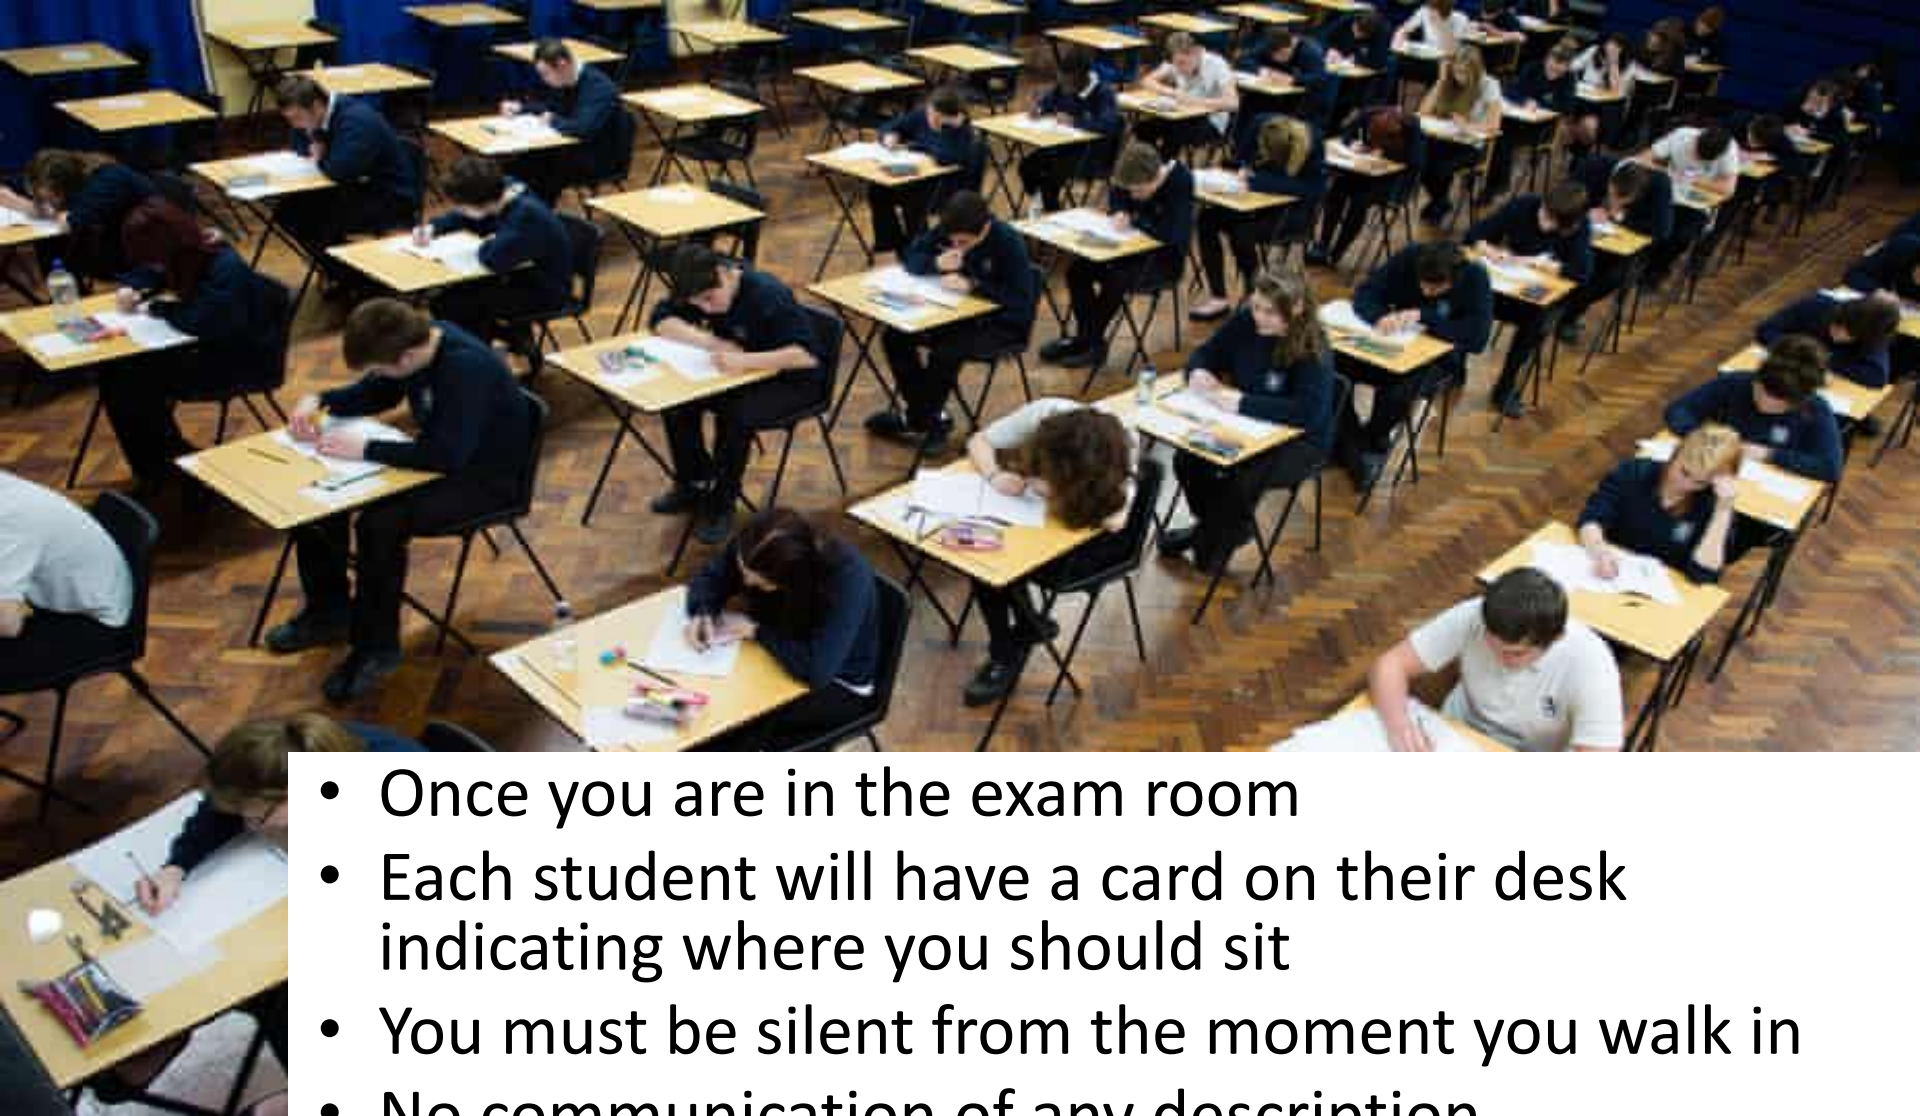

- If you have 2/3 exams scheduled at the same time. One or both will be rescheduled for an earlier /later time in the day
- You may need to spend some time in Full Center Supervision.
- This means you will be isolated from all external contacts
- You may revise during this time, but you must ensure you have all the materials you need prior to the exams starting .
- You will not have access to your devices, mobiles phones /watches during this time

- No watches
- No smart glasses
- No phones
- No ear Buds
- No other materials
- Clear water bottle (no colour , no text)
- Clear pencil case
- Only the equipment you need for the exam
- No notes , no post its,
- No lids for calculators
- No boxes/containers
- Remember you can't borrow equipment in an exam
- Black pen
- Pencil

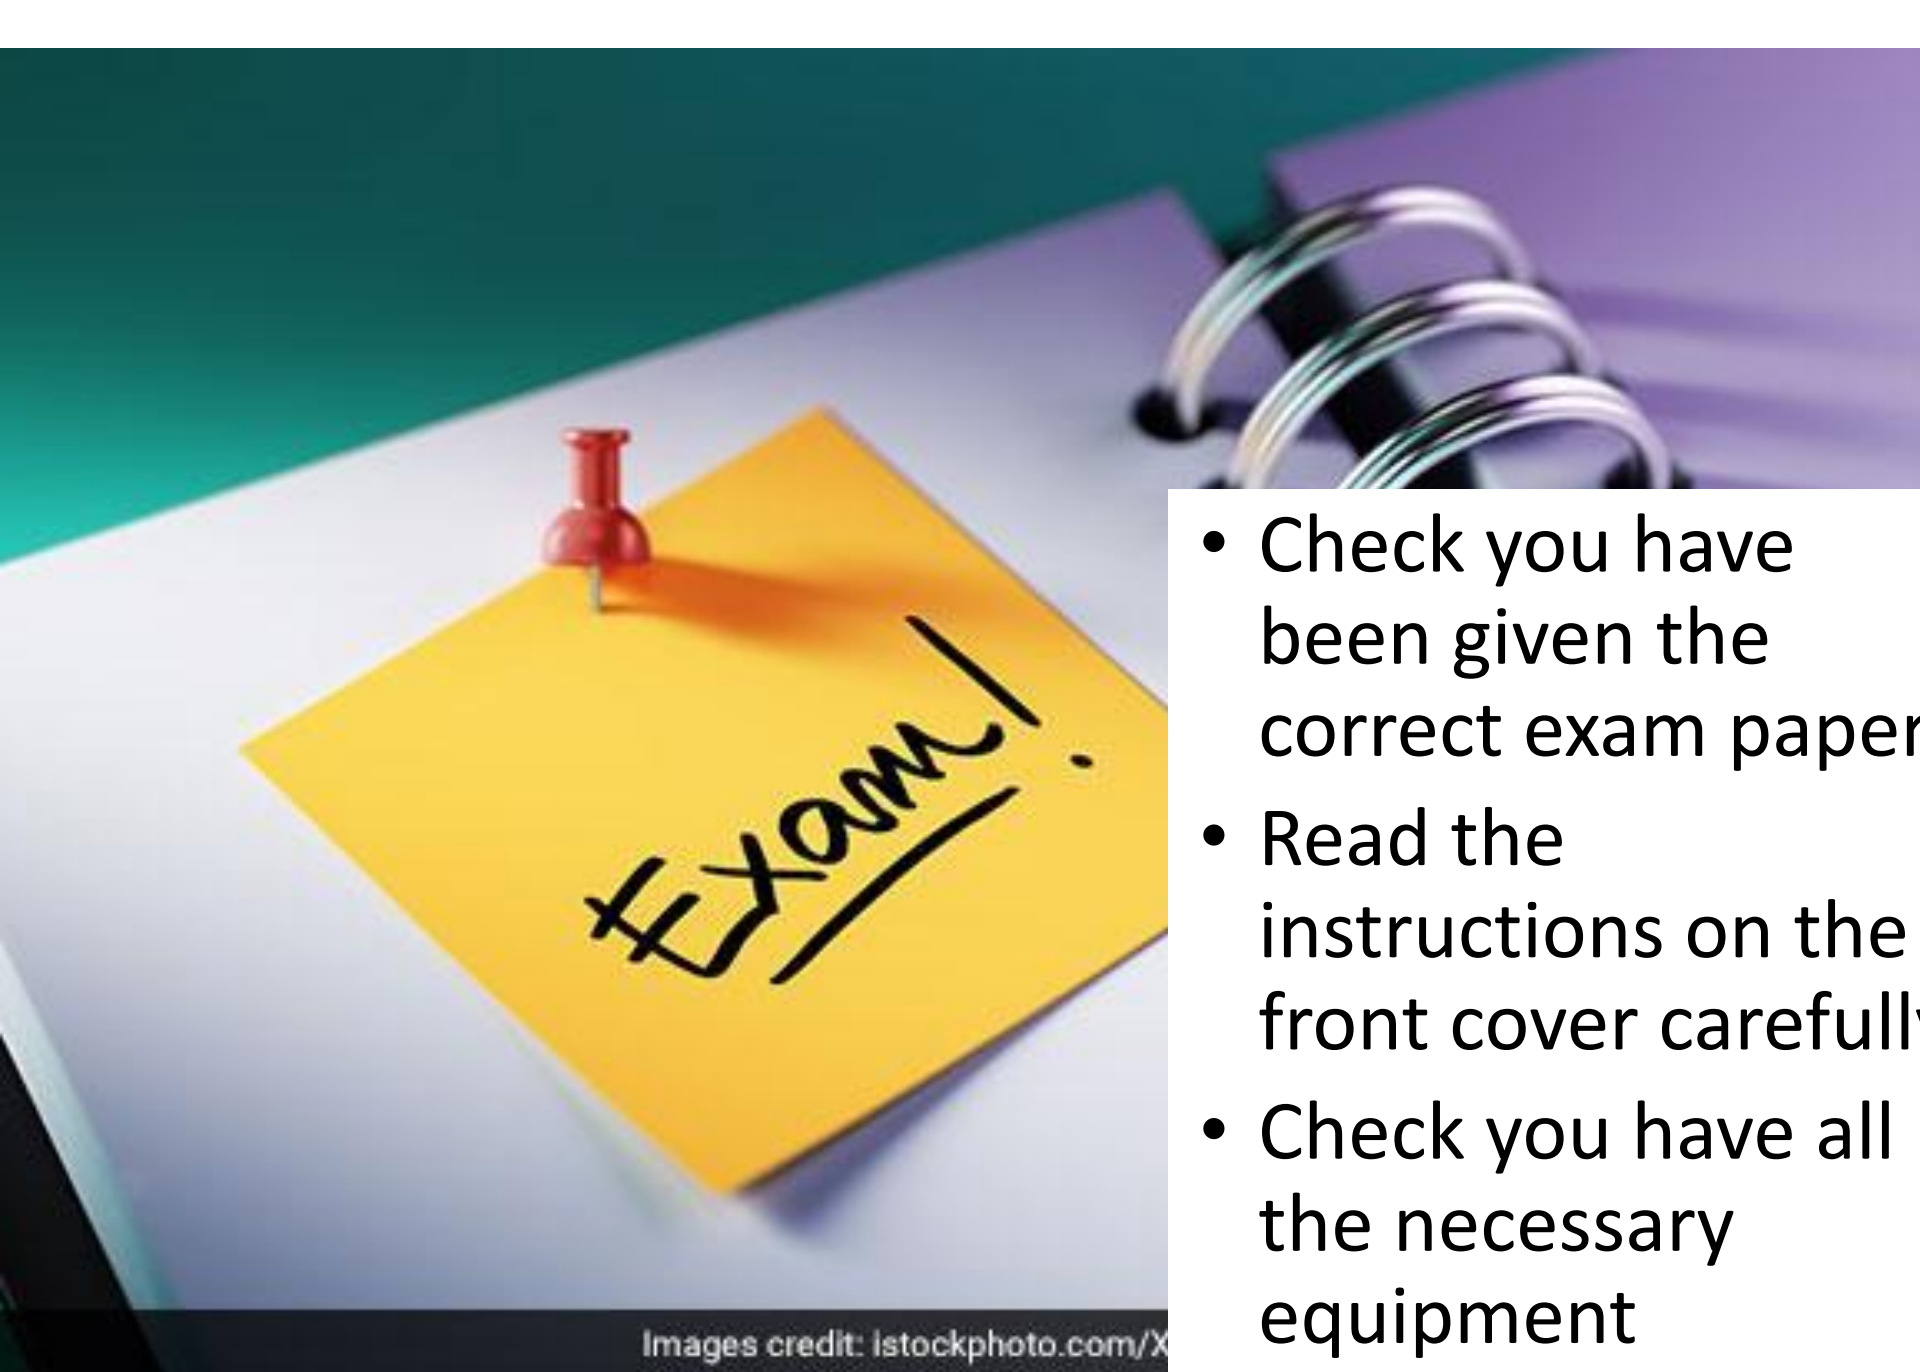

- It might be warm outside but the exam hall can be cold
- Bring layers to wear
- One person's hot room is another person's cold

- Once you are in the exam room
- Each student will have a card on their desk indicating where you should sit
- You must be silent from the moment you walk in
- No communication of any description
- If the invigilator feels you are communicating they have to report you to the exam board
- You could forfeit all of your exams

- Check you have been given the correct exam paper
- Read the instructions on the front cover carefully
- Check you have all the necessary equipment

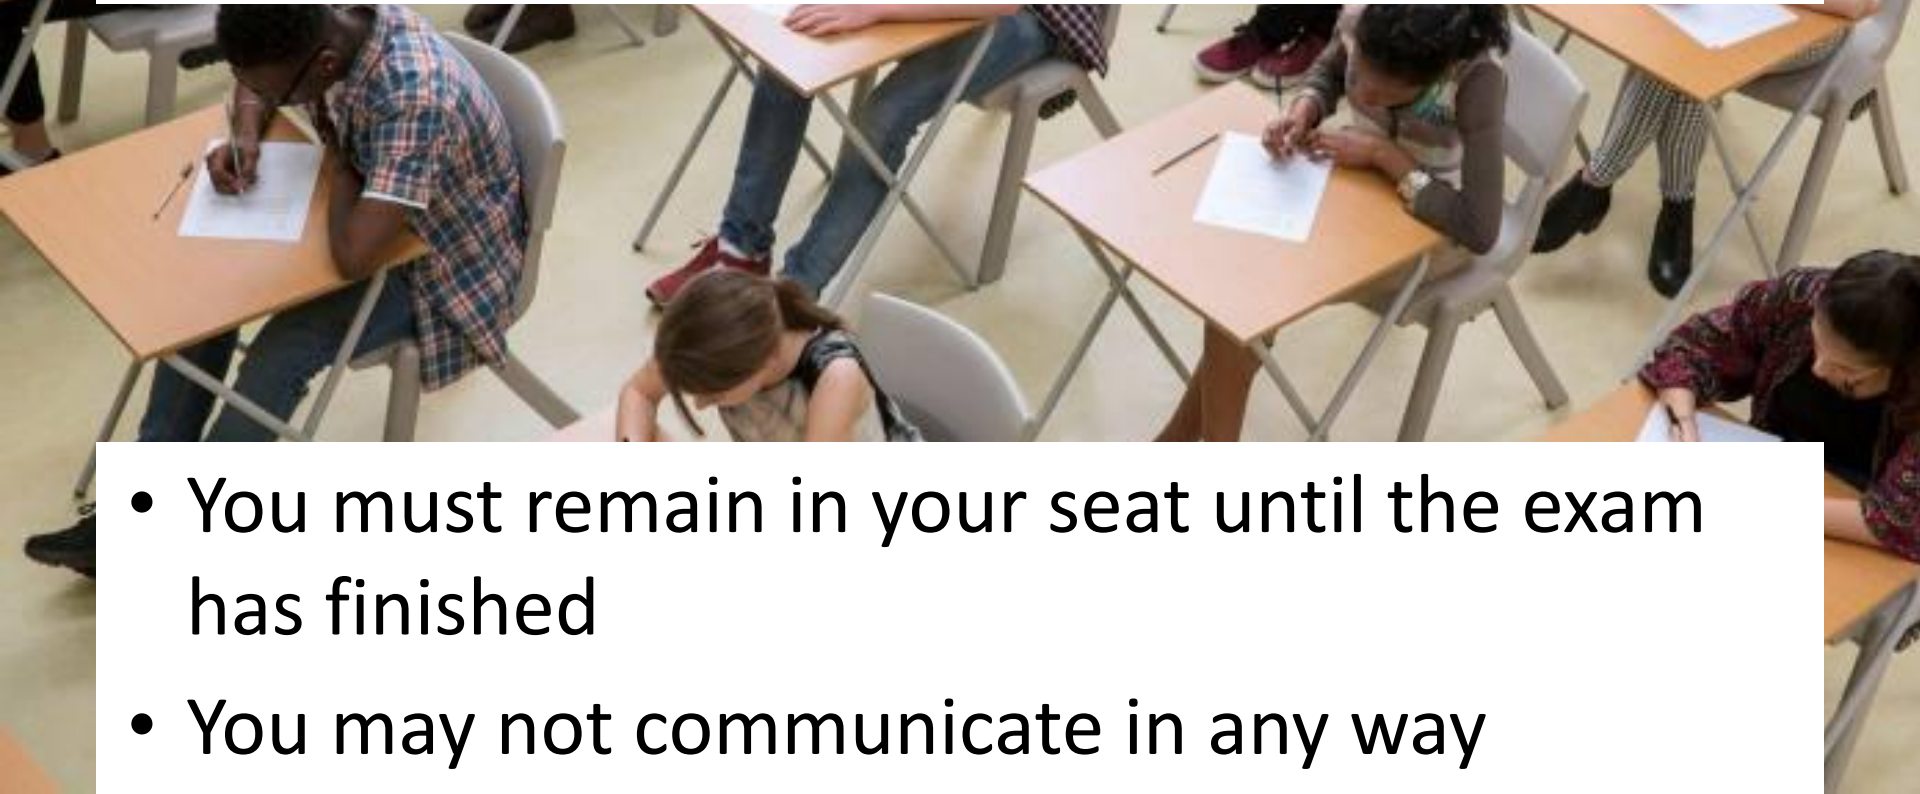

The invigilator cannot

- Help you with what a word means
- What question to answer
- How much time is left
- Cannot tell you if the question is wrong or right

What do I do when I have finished?

- You must remain in your seat until the exam has finished
- You may not communicate in any way
- You should spend the time checking your answers

Exams finish 16th June
Contingency day is 25th June 2024.

Exam results

- Cambridge – you will receive a sheet with how to download your own results on 19th August 2025
- Edexcel you will download your own results 21st August 2025
- AQA, I will send you your results on 21st August to your school email address
- Please email me if you wish the results to be sent to a different address

What if I am not happy with my grades?

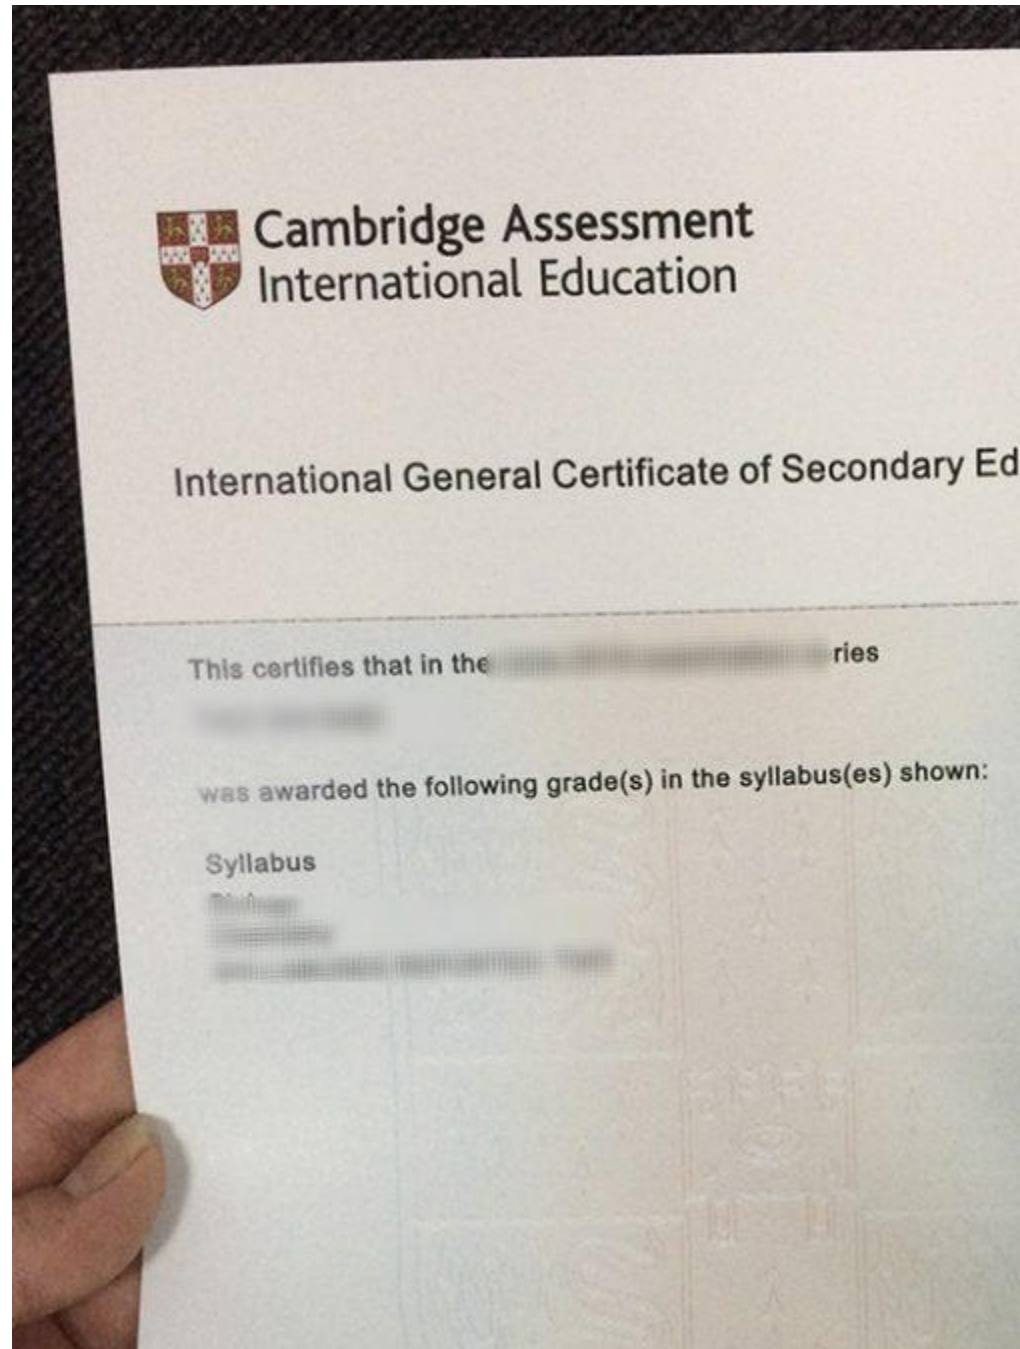

- You can ask for a re-mark or a clerical check
- You have to pay between 90-200 Euros per paper
- You need to apply in August for this service
- If you wish to re-sit you will have to arrange this in August
- Contact Exam Officer for more information

The bottom half of the slide features a yellow background. In the bottom left corner, two pencils are shown diagonally, one in front of the other. To their right, the word "APPEALS" is written in a large, bold, blue, sans-serif font. Thin white horizontal lines extend from the pencils towards the word.

APPEALS

Certificates

- Certificates will arrive in November
- Those staying at Swans will be given them
- Those leaving will need to come and collect them

A hand holding a white chalk marker is writing the question 'Are you ready for exams?' on a green chalkboard. The text is written in a casual, handwritten style. The hand is visible on the right side of the frame, holding the marker and finishing the question mark.

Are you ready for exams?

Exam Information

If you require more information then please email me at examsofficer@swansschool.net

You and your parents will receive a letter which will contains a link to a file on the school website which will have exam related documents, this presentation, and the exam timetable.