Salvatore and Levin finishing their term as well as Mr. Broadway (community member)

Dr. Morrissey discussed $60,000 flex funds that can be carried over into the 2020-2021 school year. This is the last time that funds can be transferred to the following year. Discussed pros and cons of using or saving funds for next school year. Levin/Salvatore/Hain discussed saving the funds for next school year since the budget will be cut according to the Superintendent.

Dr. Morrissey reviewed the closing out of the building for the school year – including the process for returning student items and closing up classrooms while maintaining social distancing protocols.

Summer school information will be messaged to parents – 2 summer school sessions – 1st in June will be virtual, the second in July will be blended (virtual and face to face) or if needed, only virtual Discussed setting agenda items for next meeting – Hannah Z. stated that there will be grant training so the committee can take advantage of grant application opportunities.

Committee adjourned 11:45.
