** All services are done by high school students in training under the supervision of their instructor. The reduced prices charged reflect the cost of materials only. Anyone considering these services should keep this in mind. While every attempt will be made to make the customer 100% satisfied with these services they will be done by young people in only their second year of training. Our students are capable and talented, but they are still high school students and not yet seasoned professionals. Feedback and constructive suggestions for improvement need to be voiced to the Instructor, School Administrator or Compact Director ONLY. ****
