

FROM

EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Dear ECS Community,

The days are slow and the years are fast. I can hardly believe the final quarter of the school year is already upon us, but I love this time of year, with the weather change and all the ECS spring sports. I wanted to take this opportunity as we begin the fourth quarter to update everyone on the Head of School search.

Thank you to all who were able to take part in the survey. It affirmed to the committee the direction we wanted to pursue. The Search Committee has been diligently praying, listening and reaching out to candidates who have shown the qualities and characteristics of what we are looking for as our next Head of School. The ECS Mission has been central to ECS for almost 60 years, and we are thankful for the Lord's blessing and all the men and women who have gone before us and whose shoulders we are now standing on. We are prayerfully pursuing the Lord, and we are praying He will continue to direct our paths.

At this time, the committee is only able to share a few details of the search due to respecting the confidentiality of the candidates. However, please know we have already met seven times as a committee over the last two months, and after pausing for spring break, we will resume meeting again this week. We have tried to be diligent in our preparation so when the Holy Spirit nudges us to act, we are ready.

I am surrounded by an incredible team of committee members who are helping make this process possible. I cannot express enough how valuable their wisdom, input, support, and knowledge have been. I would like to publicly thank them for the time they have spent away from their families and their passion that has been put into this process. I cannot think of a better way to serve!

Thank you for your trust, support, and prayers as we continue to move forward one step at a time.

For His Glory,

Clayton Floriani
Chairman, Head of School Search Committee
