5. Impacts happiness and social emotional well-being.

“The Why of SOR”

- In National Interest
- A Civil Rights Issue
- A Moral Imperative

“The Why of SOR”

“Literacy is inseparable from opportunity, and opportunity is inseparable from freedom. The freedom promised by literacy is both freedom from - from ignorance, oppression, poverty - and freedom to - to do new things, to make choices, to learn.”

Kōichirō Matsuura
Former Director of UNESCO

“The Why of SOR”

Science of Reading.

“Reading and writing open up the expanded Literacy Umbrella to include the multiple literacies”

-Dr. Guy Stella

“The Why of SOR”

(Data says we have a long way to go.)

- 5% of children come into school knowing how to read
- 95% have to be taught
- A vast amount of children in the United States, especially children of color, are below proficiency in reading

Dr. Margie B. Gillis
President, Literacy How

The How of SOR

Knowledge building
Focus on change

“The Why, How and What of SOR”

Why: Every Connecticut student has the right to read at or above grade level independently and proficiently by the end of third grade.

How: By leading through change and bridging research to support Connecticut educators, families, policy leaders, and community members in increasing effectiveness of literacy teaching and learning.

What: Build comprehensive local and regional literacy educational systems based on culturally-responsive, evidence-based literacy teaching and learning practices, strategies, and structures.

"THE ONLY
IS CHANGE."

If the rate of change on the outside exceeds the rate of change on the inside, the end is near.

Brainstorming Process (Bird's Eye)

Individual Design
Time (4 minutes)

Group Rotation Phase
(5 minutes)

Review &
Consolidation
(4 minutes)

Whole-Group Share
(5 minutes)

Compare & Contrast
(5 minutes)

1. Individual Design Time - 4 minutes

1. Individual Design Time

- Independently generate as many ideas in response to: What do you believe to be the challenges and benefits of participating in the SoR masterclass and affinity group work based on what Guy has presented and what you already know?
- Ideas should be articulated in words or visuals in such a way that others can understand the idea without additional explanation

2. Group Rotational Phase - 5 minutes

2. Group Rotational Phase

- Pass around each sheet in clockwise rotations
- Individuals “add to” the benefits and challenges with stickies including:
 - Wonderings- “I wonder whether you have considered” “I wonder how this would work with x.”
 - Friendly Amendments- “I think this could work even better if we added (or subtracted)”

3. Review and Consolidation - 4 minutes

3. Review & Consolidation

- Designers review “wonderings and amendments” to their original ideas.
- Group creates one summary sheet of the collective benefits and challenges.

4. Whole Group Share- 5 minutes

4. Whole-Group Share

- Groups share out a summary of one benefit and one challenge

5. Compare and Contrast - 5 minutes

5. Compare and Contrast

- Designers compare and contrast Affinity group challenges and benefits with the challenges and benefits shared by groups

5. Compare and Contrast - 5 minutes
