

The CCUSD network and devices are provided to support educational objectives consistent with the educational goals and objectives of the District curricula only. Access is a privilege, not a right, and entails responsibility.

-While on campus, your school issued device can only be connected to the internet via the district wireless network and not with any personal accounts that use cell phones or personal data access devices.

-Electronic email, files storage, google storage, website history or other electronic communication is NOT private and may be read and/or monitored by school-employed persons. Improper use will be notified to school/district administration.

-The District uses internet filtering mechanisms that promote the safety and security of the network and users. The District specifically denies any responsible for the accuracy or appropriateness of the information retrieved, or unavailable information. Outside of school, families must bear the responsibility for such guidance on district issued devices.

-Follow the District's code of conduct and internet etiquette (Student Handbook).

-Understand that the District/School is NOT responsible for loss or theft of a student's personal device, as they are not approved for use on campus.

-Not permitted:

- Submit, publish, display, or retrieve any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, racially offensive or illegal material
- Unauthorized text messaging, social networking, etc. during class or passing periods
- Harass, insult or attack others
- Damage computers, systems or networks
- Attempt to harm, modify, and/or destroy software or hardware, defined A.R.S. 13-2316
- Violate copyright laws and regulations
- Share passwords or logins
- Access others' folders, files or work space
- Use of CCUSD EIS for commercial purposes
- Installing, copy or download games, music, movies or any unauthorized software
- Gain unauthorized access to District network resources

-Personal Responsibility:

- ✓ I will report any misuse of EIS or personal technology devices to the administration
- ✓ I understand that many services and products are available for a fee and acknowledge my personal responsibility for any expenses incurred without District authorization.
- ✓ I am expected to abide by the generally acceptable rules of network etiquette.
 - I will be polite and use appropriate language.
 - I will not send or encourage others to send abusive messages.
 - I will respect privacy. I will not share home addresses, personal phone numbers or personal identifiable information.
 - I will avoid disruptions. I will not use the network in any way that would disrupt the use of the systems by others.

-The use of Google Platform and other Web Based Applications are used to strengthen communication and collaboration skills. All students have access to a safe, district-wide education Google account, and may or may not be asked to use in the classroom. In addition to Google, CCUSD® also uses a variety of online curriculum tools dedicated to enhancing learning objectives. CCUSD® ensures that the online tools it provides to students maintains the privacy of student data in accordance with Arizona law.

I understand and will abide by the provisions and conditions indicated. I understand that any violations of the above terms and conditions may result in disciplinary action and the revocation of my use of CCCUSD EIS.

Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)
Electronic Information Services (EIS)
SY 2023-2024

The user agreement of a student who is a minor must also have the signature of a legal parent/guardian who has read and will uphold this agreement.

As the legal parent/guardian of the named student, I have read this agreement and understand it. I understand that it is impossible for the School District to restrict access to all controversial materials, and I will not hold the District/School responsible for materials acquired by use of the electronic information service. I agree to report any misuse of the EIS to a School/District administrator. (Misuse may come in many forms but can be viewed as any message that is sent or received that indicate or suggest pornography, unethical or illegal solicitation, racism, sexism, inappropriate language, or other issues described in this agreement.)

I accept full responsibility for supervision if, and when, my child's use of the EIS is not in a school setting. I hereby give permission to have my child use the electronic information services.

I decline permission for my child to use technology and the internet at school. By making this choice, I am aware that my child will be prohibited from using any CCUSD-provided Electronic Information Service.
