

School Health Advisory Council Meeting:

November 3, 2022

Lake Dallas Central Services 4:00 pm

Membership: Veronica Bondurant, Andrew Clemens, Leah Ellis, John Fabro, Shorr Heathcote (non voting member), Meredith Henson, Erica Kelm, Alicia McKinley (non voting member), Josh Medlin, John Modica (non voting member), Craig Rector, Stephanie Reese, Andie Renville, Cassandra Reynolds, Carling Snell, Kimberly Spencer, Marcie Townsen, Lisa Walraven, Angie Wren

Attending: Andrew Clemens, John Fabro, Shorr Heathcote (non voting member), Alicia McKinley (non voting member), Josh Medlin, John Modica (non voting member), Stephanie Reese, Andie Renville, Carling Snell, Lisa Walraven, Angie Wren

Josh Medlin called the meeting to order at 4:04pm.

Minutes:

- The minutes from the 10.6.22 SAHC Meeting were approved.
- Michelle Fitzhugh from Redeemed Life Counseling addressed the following with the council
 - Current and local statistics for children vulnerable to sex trafficking
 - High risk groups and demographics for sex trafficking
 - Symptoms, signs, and red flags for children that have a higher potential for sex trafficking
- Captain Jessie Hunter from Corinth Police Department addressed the following with the council
 - Current and local statistics for adults and children vulnerable to sex trafficking
 - Resources and supports available at the local and state level for prevention of sex trafficking as well as resources for those that have experienced such events
 - Methods and mediums in which children are exposed to threats
 - Social media, video games, Internet sites/apps, etc.
- EHAA local curriculum selection process was discussed
- The council evaluated a potential rubric to be used during the EHAA local curriculum selection process

The meeting was adjourned at 4:57pm by Josh Medlin.