

THE STALLION STAMPEDE

The latest news and updates from Euless Junior High

The final track meet of the season was on Thursday April 8th at Central Junior High. 8th grade boys got 2nd place and 7th and 8th grade boys and girls both came in at 3rd place. Congratulations to Jersey Delgado, who got 1st place for 7th grade girls in the whole district in the 2400 race!

We had a feeling that the final track meet of the season was going to be awesome when we came in to start school on Thursday morning, the day of the meet, and saw two geese visitors appearing to stop by EJH to practice their long jump on their way back up north.

I have seen how much work the students and the coaches have put into this season and it has been fantastic to see all of that hard work pay off. Great job everyone and congratulations on a fantastic track season!

CHEERING ON CHOIR

Today is the UIL performance for EJH Choir, so we are all wearing our new choir shirts today to support them and cheer them on! Thank you to the 259 supporters who donated to the EJH Choir fundraiser that recently ended. They were able to exceed the goal that they set, which will help tremendously with maintaining equipment, uniforms, fees, scholarships, sheet music and accompanist budget supplementation, and other costs throughout the school year.

COLOR YOUR WORLD

Color is a prominent topic in Mrs. Vi's classes. Her students learn the color wheel and how to identify what is aesthetically pleasing in design, along with other necessary life skills. Mrs. Vi told me that she wanted to do something fun with her classes, so she chose to tie dye shirts with them! I noticed since I first joined EJH in November that there were tie-dye kits in the front atrium by the attendance office from Mrs. Vi waiting to be picked up by her virtual students. I felt that was such a thoughtful and creatively encouraging way for her to support her students who are learning from home. Great job, Mrs. Vi!

The dye is still sitting for awhile to encourage saturation and vibrancy with the colors, so I will keep y'all updated and post some pictures of the final products once they are complete.

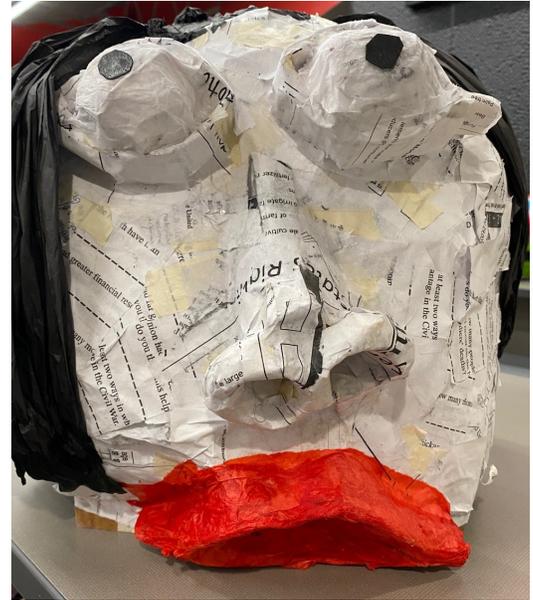

FORGING A HEAD

In Mrs. Wade's art classes, the students created heads out of paper mache.

Mrs. Wade stated "The students learned how to form eyes, a nose, and a mouth on their basic form. After they learned how, they forged on to create their own style." They used scrap papers and a glue mixture to form the solid shape of their head and then added color to their sculptures with tissue paper.

They turned out amazing! We have them on display in the library. It is very interesting to see the self expression and imagination in these pieces and to witness how the art is evoking different feelings in different people.

MIDDLE YEARS

Nothing like a good laugh!

“Inside jokes” can be handy tools for lightening up tense moments. For example, saying “No good will come of that” in a silly-dramatic voice might become a family catchphrase when someone’s doing something they shouldn’t. Or when a conversation gets heated, try freezing, walking backward three steps, and calling out, “Rewind!”
