

THE STALLION STAMPEDE

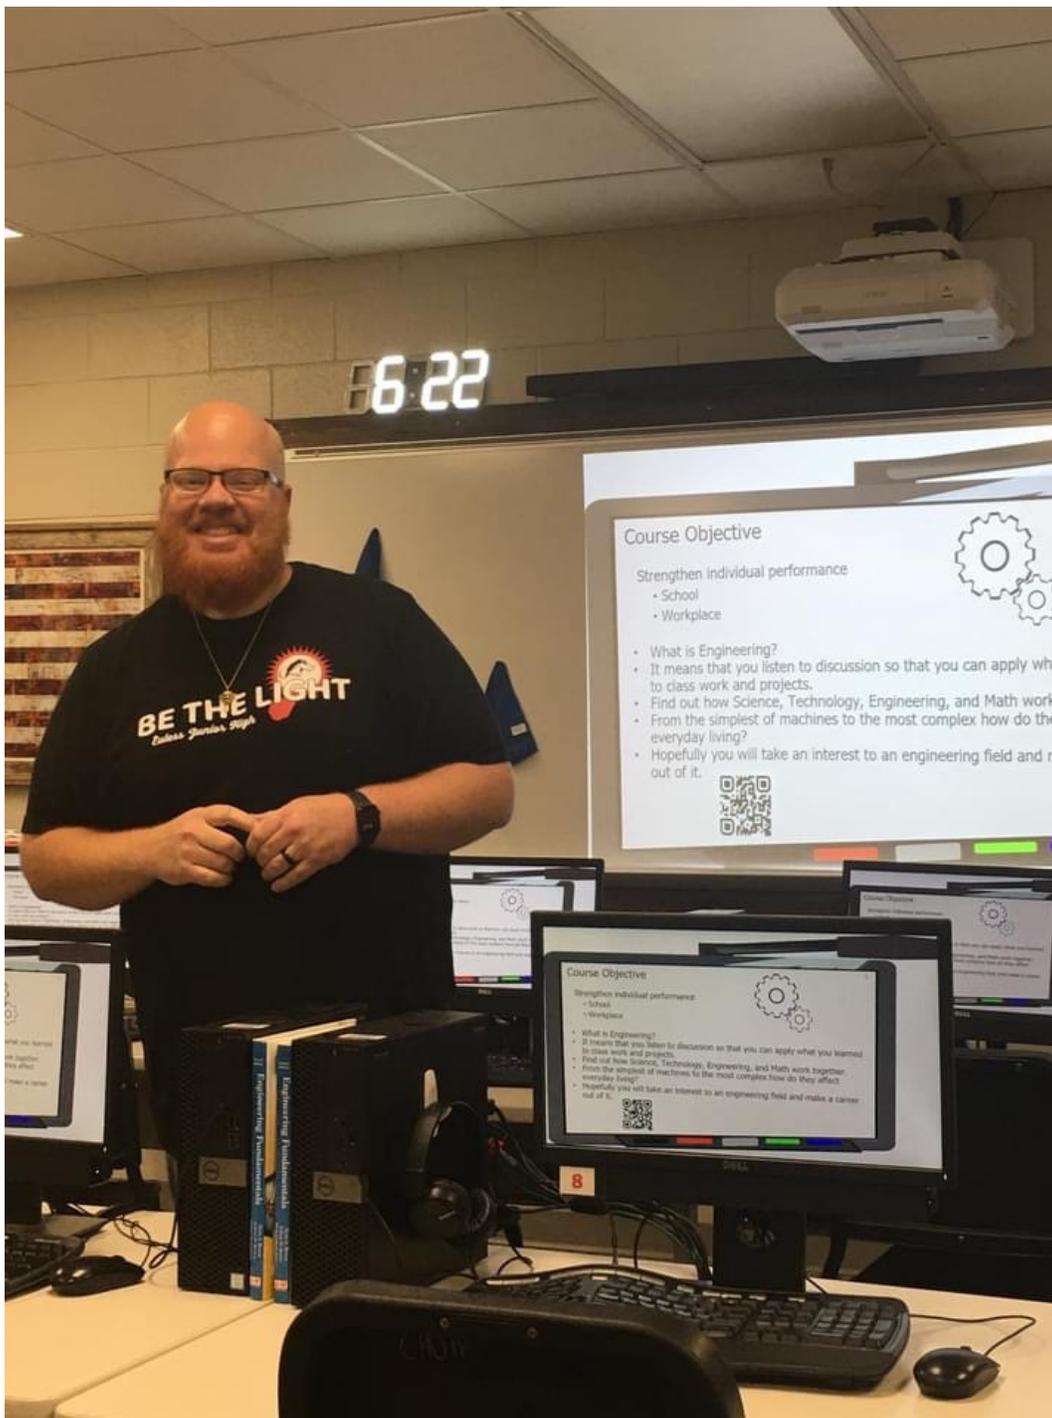

The latest news and updates from Euless Junior High

A LEGACY LIVES ON

Our campus is grieving the loss of a great teacher and man. We started our first day back as staff with Jason Caruso's family and Pastor Nunley from next door to comfort one another after coming back from Spring Break without him. We are so grateful for everyone who has supported us at this time: counselors from all over HEB ISD came on Monday to support, HR brought us all individually wrapped tissues with a heartfelt message, Central JH sent us cookies, and UEA sent us bagels.

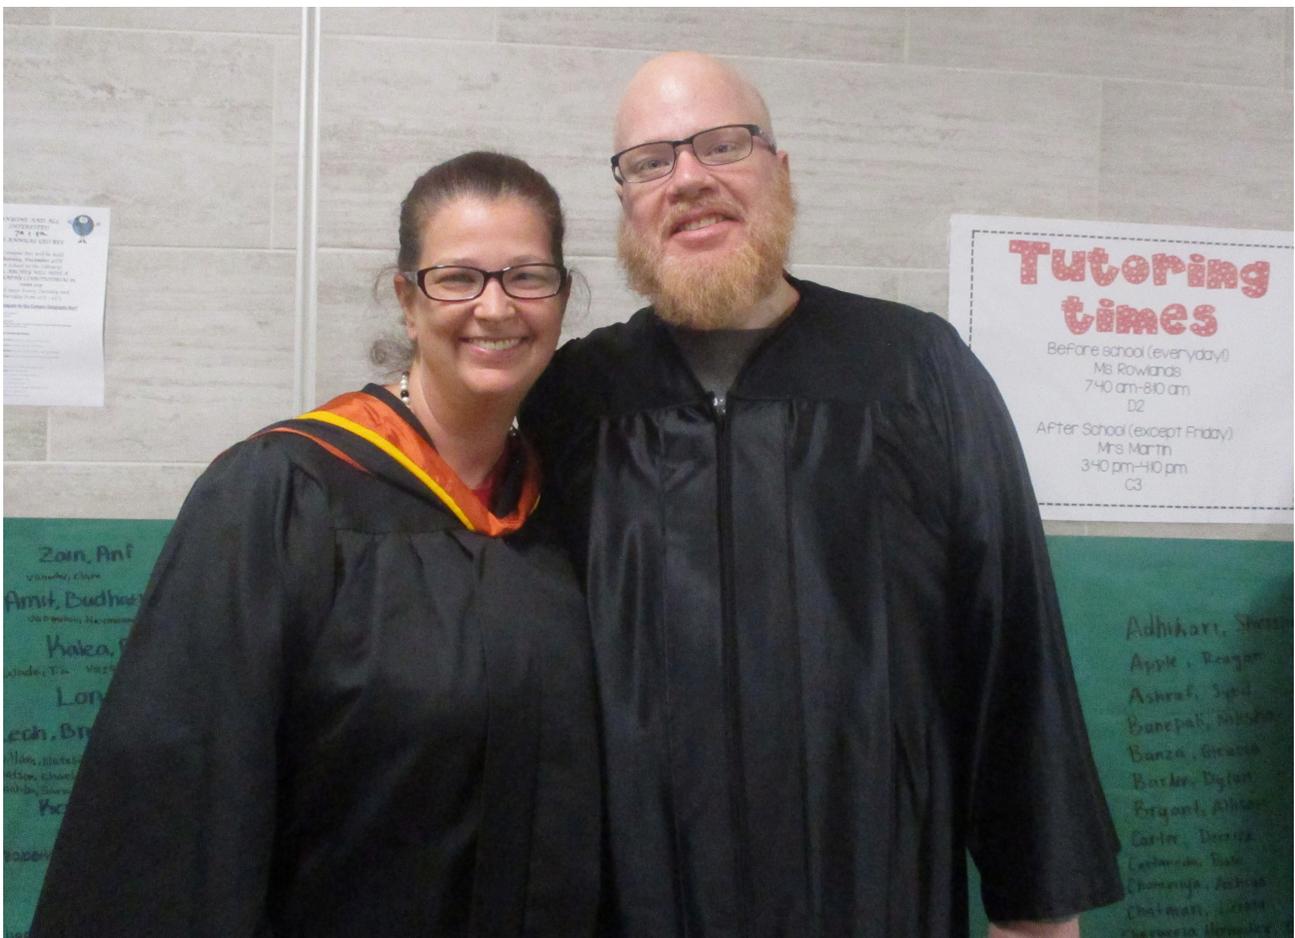

Jason's memory will live on at Euless Junior High, at Trinity High School, and in HEB ISD. He made a tremendous positive impact in our communities by being himself and we learned so much from him. He was a true example of what it means to be Stallion Strong. We can't wait to watch some Trinity Trojan Baseball on the new field being named in his honor.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in his name to the Trinity HS Angel Fund by mailed check to:

Wanted: Teen Court Volunteers

The H.E.B. Teen Court is looking for adult and teen volunteers. Volunteering for Teen Court is a great way to serve your community. The minimum age for teen volunteers is 13. Teens and adults work together to provide defendants the opportunity to take responsibility for their actions, while learning about the justice system. Teen volunteers learn public speaking skills, interviewing techniques and administrative skills. Local attorneys and the Teen Court Coordinator combine their time and talents to provide all teen volunteers with thorough training. Teen Court is a peer program that allows juvenile first offenders with Class C misdemeanors an alternative in the criminal justice system. Teen volunteers serve as the attorneys, bailiffs and clerks, while adult volunteers assist during court sessions as jury monitors and judges. You are welcome to visit any Teen Court session to observe and find out more about our program. If interested, call the Teen Court office at 817-952-2468.
