

THE STALLION STAMPEDE

The latest news and updates from Euless Junior High

SOME PEP IN OUR STEP

We had our first pep rally of the year this week! It was also "Decades Day" for this week's Spirit Day, so everyone chose a decade to dress up as. Our Spirit Day will be in two weeks on October 6th and we will dress up like superheroes.

EULESS JUNIOR HIGH RECEIVES AWARD

We received our Lone Star award from Mr. Johnson for our "A" rating and SEVEN distinctions!

SUPPORTING OUR FUTURE

A big thank you to Stephany for being the PTA President for Eules Junior High and North Eules Elementary.

Have you joined PTA yet? You can join at joinpta.org

This investment helps put on school dances, pays for the 9th grade yearbook party, and most importantly gives a former Stallion $1,000 for college or trade school.

DOING GOOD THINGS WHEN NOBODY IS WATCHING

After school on Thursday, Abimbola thought she was by herself walking down the hall. She spotted several pieces of trash on the ground in the hallway and picked them up and threw them away. She didn't know Ms. Biggers had just stepped into the hallway behind her and witnessed the whole thing. She wasn't the one who made those messes and could have just kept walking; however, she just saw a need of something that needed to be taken care of and did it.

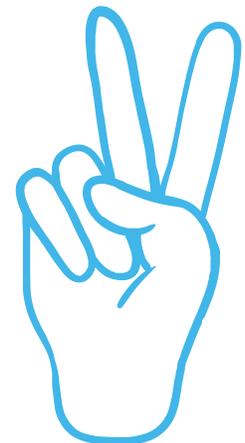

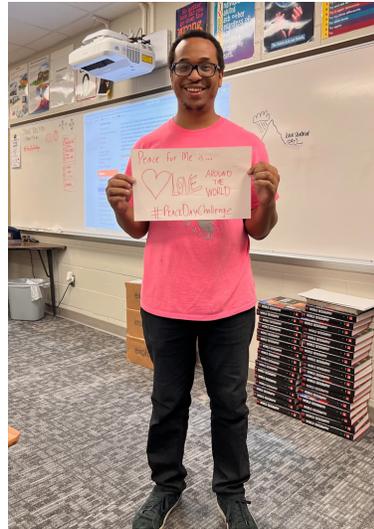

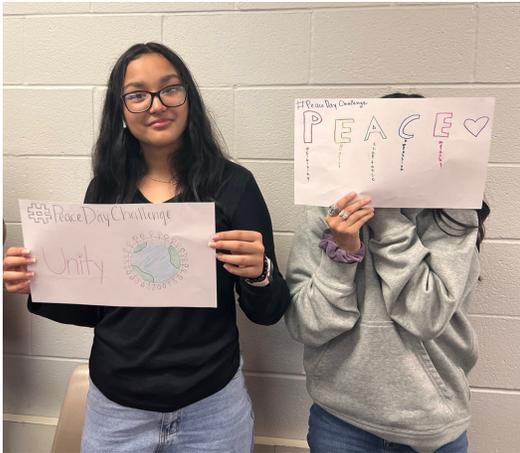

ACCOUNTABILITY & BEING PRESENT IS STALLION STRONG

Congratulations to Ms. Rowlands 6th period for winning the 1st six weeks attendance award. The class had 17 days of perfect attendance – Days with students in class (not in ISS or DAEP). Way to go!!!

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

EJH Junior World Affairs Council participated in the International Day of Peace Challenge by creating posters that show what peace looks like to them!

CHEERLEADER OF THE WEEK

Congratulations to Lauren B. for being awarded Cheerleader of the Week! To be given this honor, they have to attend practice, be a leader, and have good school spirit. Way to go, Lauren!

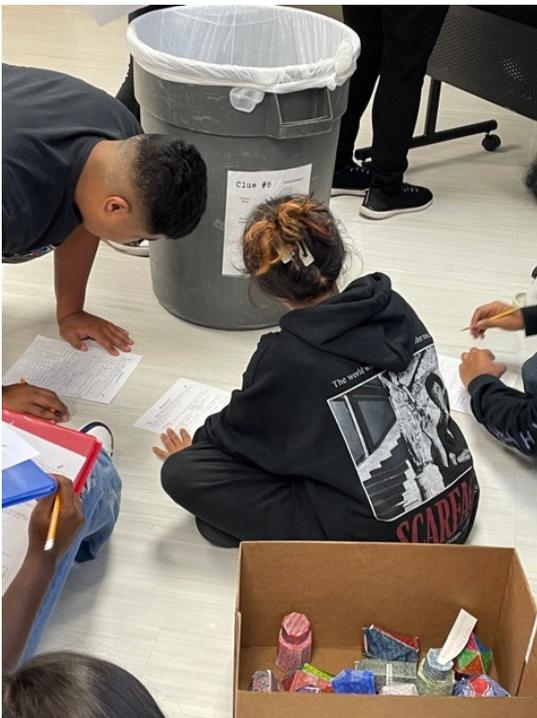

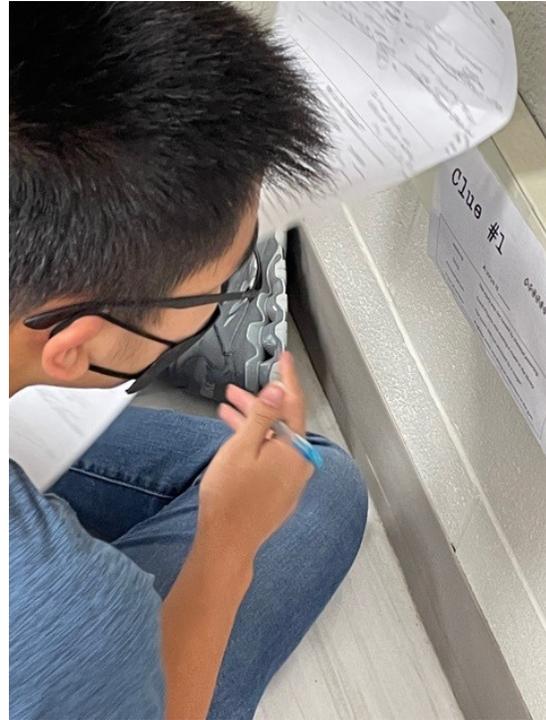

EVERYONE'S HELP COUNTS

Kolton C. helped with counting and organizing the cans for the food drive in Mrs. Menegay's class. Thank you for your help, Kolton!
