Professional Development Day

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Tensie J. Taylor

Tensie J. Taylor is from Louisburg, North Carolina. She graduated from North Carolina State University in 2009 with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication – Media concentration—and a minor in Psychology and from the University of Southern California in 2014 with a Master of Education in Postsecondary Administration and Student Affairs. Currently, Tensie is a Consultant for Lindauer Global, a global search and talent firm that places people across various sectors, such as higher education, independent schools, hospitals and academic medical centers, research facilities and foundations, social justice, and other mission-drive nonprofits. A published author and experienced speaker on anti-bullying and an internationally known pianist, Tensie has traveled the world and brings a global sensibility to her work. Tensie is a former Hollywood red-carpet host and has interviewed numerous celebrities at galas, charity functions, community service events, award shows, and film festivals. Tensie has attended the Oscars, People's Choice Awards, BET's Celebration of Gospel, NAACP Image Awards, Grammys, BET Awards, and more. Tensie's hobbies include reading, writing, singing, playing the piano and trumpet, volunteering, mentoring young people, and traveling. She has traveled to 32 countries and 6 continents.
