

Middle Division Faculty

Who We Are

A faith-based independent school located in Rancho Santa Margarita, St. John's Episcopal School is committed to the full intellectual, spiritual, and physical development of students from two years old through eighth grade. Our integrated, project-based program focuses on STEAM, student engagement, character education, and leadership development in a nurturing learning environment, cultivating students who joyfully embrace lives of service and purpose.

Our Ideal Candidate

St. John's seeks innovative, exemplary faculty for grades 6–8 who are deeply committed to educational best practices and who share our vision of making St. John's the premier independent school in Orange County. We are currently accepting applications for the 2024–25 school year in all content areas, including English, science, literature, Spanish, music, art, engineering, technology, and mathematics.

The ideal applicant possesses a demonstrated ability to create well-rounded, research-based instructional programs; to successfully manage a classroom to ensure an optimal student-learning experience; and to create lesson plans that reflect best practices and incorporate student inquiry and project-based learning. The duties listed below are representative of the general duties of the role and are not an exhaustive list, as additional duties and responsibilities may be assigned.
