

The Jason Holfinger Memorial Scholarship

Presented by Troy Firefighters Local 1638

P.O. Box 621, Troy, Oh

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Jason Holfinger was a firefighter/paramedic that proudly served the citizens of Troy, Oh. Jason was a dedicated member of Troy Firefighter’s Local 1638. Jason’s attributes truly made him a firefighter that many looked up to and still talk about to this day. Jason selflessly served the citizens of Troy and the surrounding area. Jason is remembered to this day for his humor and strength. Sadly, Jason passed away unexpectedly in 2018. The members of Troy Firefighter’s Local 1638 want to honor and memorialize Jason and invest in the future of the fire service with The Jason Holfinger Memorial Scholarship. The one time, $500 (five-hundred dollars), will be awarded to a Miami County Ohio high school senior, who plans to pursue firefighting, EMT, or paramedic certification classes after high school. There will be an exception for the residency for any child, stepchild, grandchild, or step-grandchild of a Local 1638 member who lives in an adjacent county to Miami County. The scholarship money will be given to the rewarded student after successfully completing the first quarter of firefighting, emt, or paramedic class.

The scholarship will be chosen by the Local 1638 Scholarship committee and approved by the union body.
