Biography of Dr. Brad Siegel:

Dr. Brad Siegel is honored to serve the Mountain Lakes School District as the next superintendent. He has served as superintendent for the Upper Saddle River School District (K-8) for the past six years. Previous to that role, Dr. Siegel was K-12 Regional Director of Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment for the Allendale, Ho-Ho-Kus, Northern Highlands Regional High School, and Upper Saddle River School Districts. The first fifteen years of his educational career was devoted to social studies education as a high school teacher at Hunterdon Central Regional High School and K-12 supervisor at Scotch Plains-Fanwood School District. While public education remains Dr. Siegel's primary focus, he has worked as Adjunct Assistant Professor of Social Studies Education at Teachers College, Columbia University where he received his Ed.D. in 2015. Regardless of his position, Dr. Siegel maintains a strong commitment to leadership grounded in students' interests and collaboration within the school-community. Dr. Siegel spends most of his free time with his wife, Christy, and two children Benjamin (16) and Cassandra (12). They enjoy an active life outdoors and love to travel.
