

Faculty Position: Lower School Physical Education Teacher (Full-time position)

Palm Beach Day Academy, established in 1921, is an independent, coeducational school serving 583 students from age 2 to Grade 8 on two campuses. The Lower School, which houses Pre-Primary – Grade 3, seeks a Physical Education Teacher who will foster an environment that promotes both a healthy mind and body. This position will begin in August of 2024. Candidate must be an energetic lifelong learner. In addition, a successful candidate will:

be motivated, creative, enthusiastic, solve problems collaboratively and creatively, and have a passion for teaching young children. The Physical Education teacher is responsible for organizing innovative games, activities and challenges that promote the development of both fine and gross motor skills and good sportsmanship and cooperation. The candidate must possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills and provide engaging, fun, and effective physical instruction. The Physical Education teacher also works with the school nurses to develop lessons that encourage mindfulness, proper nutrition, and healthy eating habits among all students.

Selection Criteria:

Experienced in teaching Physical Education to children aged two through age 9.

Knows and applies knowledge of current professional literature and best practices related to Physical Education

Understands the unique developmental needs of primary and elementary school students

Willing to contribute regularly to school community activities

Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management or Physical Education preferred or equivalent relevant experiences

Please email a cover letter, resume, and the contact information of at least two references to employment@pbdayschool.org