BIBLE VERSE OF THE WEEK

Then he said to them, "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch with me." He advanced a little and fell prostrate in prayer, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet, not as I will, but as you will."
Matthew 26:38-39

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Lord, look at me, accept my prayer as you accepted Peter's prayer, and let me not run away from you in the night as Judas did. Bless me, Lord, in this Holy Week, and give me the grace to know your loving presence more intimately.
Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Margaret Clitherow

St. Margaret Clitherow (1556-1586), also called Margaret of York, lived in York, England, the daughter of a candlemaker and wife of a wealthy Protestant butcher. She was raised Anglican just after the time that King Henry VIII severed the Church of England from communion with the Roman Catholic Church. A few years after her marriage, at the age of 18, she converted to the Catholic Church due to the work of covert missionary Catholic priests. While her husband remained Protestant, she aided persecuted Catholics by sheltering priests (which included her brother-in-law) and having Mass and Confessions said in her home, which became a safe house and hiding place for priests. Margaret witnessed the torturous death of many of the priests she aided, and she would publicly pray on the spot of their martyrdom. Undaunted in her work, she was imprisoned numerous times. On her final arrest she was charged for harboring Catholic priests and was condemned to a public execution by being crushed to death, a martyrdom of which she considered herself unworthy. All three of her children entered the religious life, two priests and a nun. Patronage: martyrs, businesswomen, and converts
Feast Day: March 26th

VERSÍCULO BÍBLICO DE LA

Siento en mi alma una tristeza de muerte. Quédense ustedes aquí, y permanezcan despiertos conmigo. En seguida Jesús se fue un poco más adelante, se inclinó hasta tocar el suelo con la frente, y oró diciendo: «Padre mío, si es posible, líbrame de este trago amargo; pero que no se haga lo que yo quiero, sino lo que quieres tú.»

Mateo 26:38-39

ORACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Señor, mírame, acepta mi oración como aceptaste la oración de Pedro, y no permitas que huya de ti en la noche como lo hizo Judas. Bendíceme, Señor, en esta Semana Santa, y dame la gracia de conocer más íntimamente tu presencia amorosa.
Amén.

SANTO DE LA SEMANA

Santa Margarita Clitherow

Santa Margarita Clitherow (1556-1586), también llamada Margarita de York, vivió en York, Inglaterra, hija de un fabricante de velas y esposa de un rico carnicero protestante. Fue criada como anglicana justo después de que el rey Enrique VIII separó a la Iglesia de Inglaterra de la comunión con la Iglesia Católica Romana. Unos años después de su matrimonio, a la edad de 18 años, se convirtió a la Iglesia Católica gracias al trabajo de sacerdotes católicos misioneros encubiertos. Si bien su esposo siguió siendo protestante, ella ayudó a los católicos perseguidos albergando a sacerdotes (entre los que se encontraba su cuñado) y celebrando misa y confesiones en su casa, que se convirtió en una casa segura y un escondite para los sacerdotes. Margaret fue testigo de la muerte tortuosa de muchos de los sacerdotes a los que ayudó y rezaría públicamente en el lugar de su martirio. Impávida en su trabajo, fue encarcelada en numerosas ocasiones. En su arresto final fue acusada de albergar a sacerdotes católicos y condenada a una ejecución pública al ser aplastada, martirio del que se consideraba indigna. Sus tres hijos entraron a la vida religiosa, dos sacerdotes y una monja.
