CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEES, TASK FORCES, AND CITIZEN PARTICIPATION ON STANDING COMMITTEES

In order to explore community opinion regarding various aspects of the school program, the Longview School District Board of Directors will, in coordination with the superintendent, on appropriate occasions, form ad hoc committees of community citizens to consider delineated problems. Professional staff members will generally be assigned to these committees for consultation and discussion purposes.

District standing committees may include citizen representation.

Initially Adopted: February 3, 1965
Adopted: October 12, 2009
Amended: July 13, 2015