Notes from Principal Ruhlin

The only March Madness we experienced at school this month was picking our favorite book, The Day the Crayons Quit! We enjoyed the fun-filled spirit week activities that made up Read Across America Week, culminating in our final event of "Dress like your favorite book character" day!

Thanks to many helping hands here in our building and across the way from Rutland Middle School, our students had a fabulous school-wide celebration with Glow Day! Schoolwide celebrations happen throughout the year as part of our PBIS framework.

Kindergarten

Our Kindergarteners learned about our state's beloved tradition: making maple syrup! They had a great visit to Sugar and Spice and left with bellies full of pancakes!

1st Grade

1st Graders have been learning about various cultures and the importance of recognizing the value of diversity in our community.

2nd Grade

2nd Graders continue to be role models in our school and demonstrate our schoolwide expectations and monthly character traits for our younger students.
