

A photograph of children in a classroom playing with a large, multi-colored parachute. The parachute is held up by several children, creating a large, colorful canopy. The colors of the parachute include red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple. The children are lying on the floor, looking up at the parachute. The background shows a classroom setting with wooden chairs and a table.

Pleasanton USD Transitional Kindergarten Classroom Buildings

DONLON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

IHED

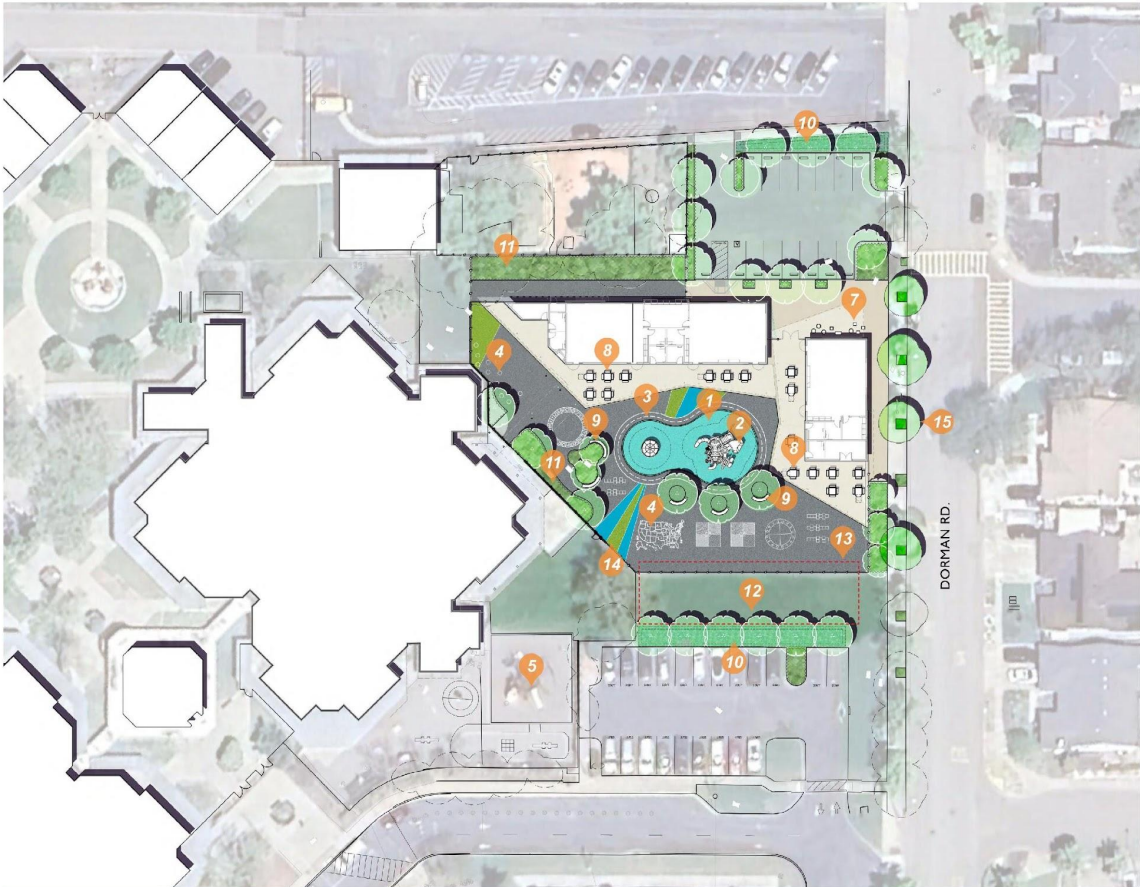

Introductions

Background

- District Wide Transitional Kinder (TK) Expansion Project was part of Bond Measure I-1 and Bond Measure I
 - To provide adequate space for the TK program at each site
- Donlon ES and Fairlands ES are the first two sites scheduled to be completed in the TK Expansion Project
- Completed over 15 Meetings with Site Committee, Administration, and City Traffic Engineer
- Demographic Survey to support enrollment rate

Donlon Elementary School TK Classrooms

Donlon Elementary School | Site Plan

- 1 Tot Lot
- 2 2-5 Play Structure
- 3 Trike Track
- 4 Striped Asphalt Games
- 5 Existing Play Structure to Remain
- 7 Seatpads
- 8 Outdoor Classrooms
- 9 Seatwalls
- 10 Bio-retention Area, SCD
- 11 Landscape Area, typ.
- 12 Turf Improvements
- 13 Approx Location of Future Classrooms
- 14 Painted Striping
- 15 Existing Street Trees to Remain

Donlon Elementary School | Enlarged Site Plan

- 1 Tot Lot
- 2 2-5 Play Structure
- 3 Trike Track
- 4 Striped Asphalt Games
- 5 Existing Play Structure to Remain
- 7 Seatpads
- 8 Outdoor Classrooms
- 9 Seatwalls
- 10 Bio-retention Area, SCD
- 11 Landscape Area, typ.
- 12 Turf Improvements
- 13 Approx Location of Future Classrooms
- 14 Painted Striping
- 15 Existing Street Trees to Remain

Donlon Elementary School | TK Entry View

Donlon Elementary School | TK Street View

Donlon Elementary School | Play Area View

Next steps

Next Steps

- Complete Design and submit for DSA approval in Spring 2024
- Community Outreach Meeting in Fall 2024
- Tentative Construction completion in Fall 2025

Questions