When the need for leave is foreseeable, the employee must apply for leave 30 days in advance. If the need for leave is unforeseen, the employee must provide such notice within 1-2 business days or when the need for leave becomes known. If the employee does not advise the supervisor or the appropriate designee that the reason for his or her leave was covered by FMLA, he or she has two business days upon returning to work to inform such supervisor or appropriate designee; otherwise, the employee may not subsequently assert FMLA protections. Failure to request Family and Medical Leave in a timely manner could result in the delay of your request.

You are required to furnish medical certification for a serious health condition for yourself (including pregnancy) or a family member. For your own medical leave, the certification must include information that you are or will be unable to perform one or more of the essential functions of your job.

I understand this is unpaid leave once all paid sick and catastrophic leave has been exhausted. I understand that my health insurance coverage will be maintained under the group health plan for the duration of the 12 weeks (60 contract days) of FMLA Leave at the same level and under the same conditions coverage would have been provided if no leave had been taken. Should I fail to return to work, the Board may recover from me the cost of any benefit coverage premium that was paid by the Board during my FMLA leave period.

I understand that FMLA is a period of 12 weeks (60 contract days) and medical/birth adoption leave may be extended up to one full year, provided my leave has not ended and I have not been returned to payroll status. Requests for extensions/changes must be submitted to human resources in writing.

You are responsible for timely payment of your portion of premiums for health and other benefits you elect to continue during leave. If you are in a paid status during any part of your leave, usual deductions will be made from your paycheck. If you are in an unpaid status, you must make arrangements to pay your usual contributions/payments.

If the premiums for insurance become past due for 30 days or more and a 15 day written notification is issued, coverage will be cancelled and cannot be reinstated until you return to paid status. Contact PEEHIP at member.services@rsa-al.gov, call toll free at 877-517-0020 or call local at 334-517-7000.
