

SUBCOMMITTEES OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The School Committee may appoint members to subcommittees at their annual organizational meeting for a duration not to extend past the following organizational meeting. These subcommittees may be created for a specific purpose and to make recommendations for Committee action. Additional subcommittees may be formed at any time.

1. The subcommittee will be established through the action of the Committee.
2. The Committee chairperson, subject to approval by the Committee, will appoint the subcommittee chairperson and its members.
3. The subcommittee will be provided with a list of its functions and duties.
4. The subcommittee may make recommendations for Committee action, but it may not act for the School Committee.
5. The Committee will dissolve a subcommittee upon completion of its assignment, or a vote of the Committee may dissolve it at any time.
6. All subcommittees of the School Committee are subject to the provisions of the Open Meeting Law.
