

QUALITY INDICATORS OF INDIVIDUAL EVALUATION

- The individual evaluation provides relevant and functional information about the student.
- The individual evaluation provides information to determine a student's eligibility or continuing eligibility for special education services.
- The individual evaluation provides information to determine a student's present levels of educational performance including areas of strength and areas of need arising from the student's disability.
- The individual evaluation provides information to identify supports, services and modifications to ensure that a student with a disability is involved in and progresses in the general curriculum.
- The individual evaluation report provides information to address a student's instructional needs.
- The evaluation results for each student includes the strengths of the student and the concerns of the parent about his or her child's education needs.
- The evaluation is sufficiently comprehensive to identify all the student's special education needs, whether or not commonly linked to the disability category in which the child has been classified.